Development of a parking lot in downtown Andover's last bit of open space began this week on Chestnut Street by the Malden Co-Operative bank.

That, coupled with a forecast of expansion at Shawsheen Plaza and confirmation that Koala Inns will go forward with development of their 124-room facility in West Andover, indicates a continued healthy business climate in Andover.

Plans are only in the preliminary stage for the possible expansion of the Shawsheen Plaza shopping center, with a possible spring groundbreaking planned.

Koala Inns, which has obtained all permits from the town for its building adjacent to Valle's in West Andover, has just received permits and easements from the state which allow its planning and designing to be accelerated.

The Malden Co-Operative bank has leased the Chestnut Street lot to the rear of the Main street bank building and has initiated construction of a parking lot to accommodate 55 spaces.

The action was necessitated by the bank's steady growth in Andover, according to Edward R. Marston, president.

The lot for banking customers is expected to be completed about Nov. 1.

Architect Archibald MacLaren of Andover has done the design work for the bank, with construction being done by Francis P. Reilly, Andover contractor. Landscaping will be done by Peter Hornbeck of the Harvard School of Design. The design of the lot is intended to be in keeping with the Williamsburg theme of the bank.

The Chestnut Street lot has been vacant for over a decade. Two houses on the property were torn down more than 10 years ago for intended business development. Rogers Brook construction to the rear of the property delayed planning and the lot remained vacant until its development this week.

At the Plaza, which already has undergone one expansion, Gordon Bloom of Marathon Realty, the property owners, said that planning is in the very preliminary stages for a 26,000-square foot addition, possibly to get underway next spring.

The addition would be in keeping with the present structures.

The development firm is currently discussing the legalities and planning stage

Mrs. Poore Knocks School Maintenance

Selectman Susan T. Poore, apparently dissatisfied with the way school buildings are maintained, suggested Monday that responsibility for them be taken from the school superintendent and given to the town manager and school committee.

"The thrust of my concern is that the budget has maintenance funds allocated, but the buildings do not appear to have been given the proper amount of money," Poore told selectmen.

She proposed a separate budget item for building maintenance to be administered "under the town manager's authority and also with the school committee."

"Maintenance has been painfully lacking," she said. "In every school there are problems not of small magnitude."

She said a building maintenance engineer position was suggested several years ago. The job was originally intended to include maintenance of both town and school buildings, Poore said, but "the school buildings had the major need, and he became the school maintenance engineer."

Poore said she thought the job of the maintenance engineer was to set priorities for major maintenance work, but she had not heard of such priorities. "He's been here three years," she said, referring to School Plant Engineer Al Hart.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said the maintenance assessment and program had been put together in the last several months.

Octoberfest Entertainers

The Stratton Mountain Boys will be the featured entertainers at the Andover Republican Town committee Octoberfest set for Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 6 p.m. at the Sheraton Rolling Green.

GOP Plans Octoberfest

The Andover Republican Town Committee is sponsoring an Octoberfest on Wednesday, Oct. 17, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Sheraton Rolling Green.

The Stratton Mountain Boys, a world-renowned musical group, will provide entertainment during the evening. The featured entertainers have appeared throughout the United States and Europe providing upbeat musical evening for just such an occasion.

Republican Presidential candidates, or their campaign workers, or family members, have been invited to attend and meet with those attending. Some have accepted, according to committee members.

This is the first in a series of events that the town committee will sponsor as the Presidential primaries approach.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from committee members Harry Axelrod, Robert Merrill, William Novelline, Mrs. Edward M. Harris or the Sheraton Rolling Green.

One kilowatt (1,000 watts) is approximately the amount of electricity needed to operate a steam iron for one hour.

Town House Topics

School Behavior To Be Topic Of Board

A new school policy geared toward improving the school climate by rewarding appropriate behavior — and punishing those who don't abide by school rules and regulations — is expected to get a second pass by the school committee Tuesday night.

Codes of behavior have been submitted and each school has presented a student privileges program for those who "buy the social contract," as Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert says.

The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Stowe School.

Final Day To Register

Friday will be the final day for registration of new voters who wish to participate in the Oct. 15 town meeting.

The Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the town house from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Persons registering should bring proof of residence, such as a utility bill, tax bill, in order to facilitate the registration process.

Town Won't Sue Over Holiday

The town will probably not sue the state for the money it cost Andover to hold a holiday Monday, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told selectmen Monday.

Clark said he will probably offer town employees the day with pay, and charge the day against sick pay. Each non-union town employee is entitled to one and a quarter sick days with pay per month, the manager said.

Clark said state legislation declared Monday a holiday but did not declare that municipal employees had to be paid for it. Since the $4000 it will cost to pay employees for Monday will be paid voluntarily, the town would not have a strong case seeking reimbursement the state, Clark said.

The manager said he was working out a way to pay town union employees for the day within the terms of the contracts.

Zoning Board Candidates Interviewed

Four candidates for a position as alternate member of the zoning board of appeals were interviewed by selectmen Monday night.

Thomas S. Barenboim, Prof. Carol C. McDonough, Roger W. Collins and Prof. Patricia E. Khani were each interviewed for about 15 minutes by the board.

Barenboim, lease and fleet manager for Clark Trust Leasing, Lawrence, received a bachelor of business management degree from Northeastern University in 1978.

Prof. McDonough, chairman of the University of Lowell economics department, has lived in Andover for nine years.

Collins, a former member and chairman of the board of selectmen, is a real estate broker.

Prof. Khani, a master of science in accounting and a certified public accountant, is a professor of accounting at New Hampshire College, Manchester.

There is one opening on the zoning board, and selectmen will interview three more candidates for the position at their Nov. 5 meeting, chairman Edward M. Harris said. The appointment might not be made until December, Harris said.

There is an article in the October town meeting warrant which would create two new associate member positions on the zoning board if passed.

Art In Park On Saturday For Sure

Art In The Park, sponsored by the Andover Artists Guild and the Andover Department of Community Affairs, has been rescheduled for Saturday, Oct. 6, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. It will be held in Andover's Central Park, on the corner of Bartlett and Chestnut Streets. In case of rain it will be held in West Junior High.

Andover merchants have been displaying works by local artists for the past week as part of Art Festival Week, and have held them over. The artists and their locations are: Lawrence Cooperative Bank, Joan Rademacher; Malden Cooperative Bank, Mary Kifner; Bay State National Bank, Norma Gammon; The Sport Shop, Mary Cummings; Andover Savings Bank, Phila Slade and Bette Wasserboehr; Williams Fine Jewelry, Marietta Amy; Olde Village Flower Shop, Inc., James Carson; Russems, Jane Trumboire; Yankee Lady, Elaine Meisenger; House of Clean, Florence Matthews; Kenneth P. Considering Steps To Curb Vandalism

The cost of installing alarms to warn police of intruders at the town's water reservoirs was being investigated this week by Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark at the request of selectmen.

Also being considered is a ban on the use of public property during certain night-time hours. Parks and school buildings would be posted "No Trespassing," which would allow police to arrest offenders.

Selectmen met with Police Chief David L. Nicoll Monday night to discuss possible remedies to the vandalism problems in town.

"It's not just in Andover," Nicoll said, "no matter where you go vandalism is on the increase."

Major problems which concerned selectmen included the twice-vandalized Holt Hill water reservoir, damaged fences and burned picnic tables in Recreation Park, and battered steel doors at the Pump's Pond beach house.

"There's no way in the world we're going to cover the town with the vandalism being done," Nicoll said. "We have to have the help of the citizens."

Selectmen rejected the possibility of enclosing reservoirs with fences because they were too expensive and easily broken. They also rejected electrifying existing fences because it would leave the town open to litigation.

Clark said the layout for posting "No Trespassing" signs had to be done by Town Engineer John Avery who was busy working on engineering problems related to summer construction in town.

Avery will be put to work on the sign problem as soon as possible, Clark said.

Clark asked selectmen to consider amending the town's parade bylaw to make large assemblages of persons without a permit illegal. Clark said he did not propose to include a parade permit requirement in the bylaw.

He said breaking up large gatherings of young persons might prevent activities which were "potentially expensive to the town."

Nicoll was not sure of the practicality of the idea. "At least when they're collected there," referring to Memorial Park, "we know where they are," the Chief said.

Selectmen considered rigging schools with alarms, but the Chief said they already had alarms which went off when triggered by noise. Chief Nicoll said the schools were too large to equip with alarms at every door and window.

The greatest deterrent, Nicoll said, would be a helpful citizenry. He recommended calling in suspicious persons or vehicles to the police. All such calls are answered, he said. He added that it would be helpful if persons calling in such complaints could give accurate descriptions of suspicious persons, and license numbers of cars.

Selectman Susan T. Poore asked if programs in school might help prevent some of the vandalism. Clark said James Johnson, police administrative assistant, was considering preparing video-tapes which show the potential dangers of seeming pranks.

About the vandalism, Nicoll said, "It's just senseless, that's all it is. And expensive."

Selectman Chairman Edward M. Harris, remarking on some of the vandalism he had seen, said, "You can't believe they're anything but animals."

'Constitution Express' To Visit In May

The "Constitution Express," a railroad car-turned traveling museum in observance of the 200th anniversary of the Massachusetts Constitution, will arrive in Andover next May.

Selectman Norma Gammon has been appointed town chairman of the local Constitution observance, and asks persons interested in helping develop appropriate programs and activities to contact her.

The "Constitution Express" will visit May 25 to 27, on its way between stops in Lawrence and Woburn. It will feature a slide show about the Constitution, with particular emphasis on personalities and controversies involved in the preparation. It will also display artifacts relating to the period in the latter half of the 18th century, during which the Constitution was drawn up and accepted.

The Constitutional convention got underway Sept. 1, 1779, at the First Church in Cambridge. Ten months later, on June 16, 1780, meeting in the Brattle Street Church in Boston, the delegates accepted the articles.

The Constitution went into effect with the first meeting of the General Court of the Commonwealth on the last Wednesday in October, 1780 — seven years before the U.S. Constitution, for which it was a model, and 11 years before the Bill of Rights. It is the oldest constitution existing today in its original form.

Earlier this year the Mass. Legislature established a Special Commission on the Bicentennial of the Commonwealth's Constitution, headed by Rep. William P. Nagle, Jr., of Northampton and State Sen. Paul D. Harold of Quincy. The 32 men and women are planning events in the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, with special consideration for school youngsters.

They anticipated that towns would form their own committees for the anniversary, and include local officials, school representatives, fraternal and patriotic organizations, Scouts, Leagues of Women Voters, historical societies, libraries and other interested groups.

The City of Quincy held its celebration in September, featuring special ceremonies in honor of John Adams, principal drafter of the Massachusetts

Constitutions, whom Historian Samuel Eliot Morison called "undoubtedly the greatest expert on Constitutions in America if not in the world." The Constitution was displayed in Adams' law office and the observance included special church services and a parade that ended at Adams' Birthplace.

The Cambridge Historical Society is planning a reenactment of the session of the convention which approved the Constitution for submission to the towns. The Constitution Express will visit some 35 communities in the Commonwealth.

2. Take her home and put your talents to work and let your imagination flow.
3. Return the dolls by November 10. They will be displayed and judged by both the public and an impartial panel as to the best dressed in one of 4 categories: Original Design, Knit and Crochet, Fancy Dress, Disco Design.
4. The winners will receive cash prizes. Then the dolls will be sold at auction. . . and here's the best part. . . all proceeds from the auction will go to help make Christmas a little merrier for a needy tot. So, make a point to visit Andover Bank today (you don't have to be a customer to participate), pick up your doll and join our Great Dress a Doll. . . Help a Tot Contest.

DRESS A DOLL. . . HELP A TOT CONTEST RULES:

1. Pick up a doll at any office of Andover Bank starting October 9.
2. Register for contest.
3. Design and make an outfit for the doll in one of the 4 categories: Original Design, Knit and Crochet (any costume made by knitting or crocheting), Fancy Dress, Disco Design.
4. Return doll by November 10. Four cash prizes will be awarded in each of our offices for the winning doll in each category.
5. A Grand Prize will be selected by the public and awarded to the doll judged best of all in each office.

After dolls have been on exhibit and judged, they will be sold to the highest bidder on December 1. The Auctions will be at our Main Office, 61 Main Street, Andover and our Tewksbury Office, 995 Main Street. All proceeds will go to children's charities to help make Christmas a little merrier for a needy tot.

Slave Rails

From 1830 to 1860 almost 1,000 slaves fled north each year on the underground railroad. The system reached from Kentucky and Virginia across Ohio, and from Maryland across Pennsylvania to New York and New England, according to Old Sturbridge Village, the living history museum in Sturbridge.

Taxi Service Discussed

Gordon Ulen of Swampscott wants to start a taxi service in Andover, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told selectmen Monday.

Clark said Ulen planned to attend the selectmen's meeting, but he did not show.

The board would have to grant a license and set rates before Ulen could open a taxi service here.

Clark warned the board that, according to his experience with taxi services in other towns, the business can be very competitive, and result in decreased profits for the competing firms. This could mean the decline of the maintenance of the taxis and an increase in the turnover of the drivers, Clark said.

If the quality of the service of competing firms deteriorated, the manager said, police and citizens would look to the board for a remedy. He recommended placing stipulations in any license the board might grant Ulen to guarantee the quality of the service he would provide.

Selectman James Abramson asked that Ulen be invited to another meeting to speak to the board about his proposed operation. Abramson said he would like to see some financial background on Ulen to judge if he could properly set up a taxi service.

Currently, there is only one taxi service in Andover, Morrissey Taxi.

Clark said Morrissey recently asked for a taxi stand in front of his shop on Park Street. The stand would be part public convenience and part a guaranteed parking space for a private concern, and Clark recommended against granting it.

Seminar For Step-Parents Planned By Association

"If it weren't for your kids, everything would be great with us," he shouts at his wife. "Do you want me to get rid of them? Sometimes I feel I have to choose between you and them!" she cries.

Martha had raised her children, now 10 and 8, by herself for four years after she and her first husband divorced. She was proud of the job she'd done, struggling to maintain a job and home with no help. But she was lonely and when she and George met, and he got along so well with the children, she thought it would be good for them to have a man in the house, and for her to have a partner. George, never married, before was attracted by Martha's warmth and competence. They married, and it seemed to George that Martha suddenly had no time for him, while Martha felt torn between her husband and her children.

Carl had been left a widower with three daughters when his first wife died of leukemia. Laura, who had helped raise her two younger brothers after their mother died when Laura was 11, understood what he and the girls were going through and longed to give them the love they were missing. When she and Carl married, she was crushed when his daughters became distant and critical, with such comments as "Mommy's spaghetti was better."

Jane and Peter met and married after each had been divorced several years. Peter's children lived with their mother and visited Jane and Peter occasionally, and Jane's 15-year-old son lived with the couple, visiting his father weekends and vacations. Whenever he returned from a visit, he was sullen and insulting to Peter. Then Peter would accuse Jane "He's just a spoiled kid. You've always let him wrap you around his little finger." "You think your kids are so perfect — what about your dear little daughter Sally — you buy her a car after she flunks two courses?" Jane retorts.

These three couples face a task that is increasingly common: attempting to make a "re-constituted," "blended" or "step family" work. This type of family where both adults and children have known the anguish of family dissolution through death or divorce, faces many painful experiences: working through grief over the loss of the "real" parent or spouse, feeling like an outsider, especially where a step-parent joins an existing family; having the "outsider" find fault with the way things have been done; the ingratitude of children toward the new "parent"; for the children, having a stranger take your "real" mother or father's place and order you around; divided loyalty.

Men and women who take on the challenges of a step-family do so because they believe in the possibility of a loving marriage and family life. This culture legitimizes and idealizes the original nuclear family, and there exists little support and fewer models for the re-constituted family to follow. Recognizing the helpfulness of sharing problems and solutions, Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence, a member agency of Merrimack Valley United Fund, is planning a Seminar for Step-parents, led by Betty Case, ACSW. There will be six meetings, Tuesday 7:30 to 9 p.m., Oct. 9 to 13, in Andover at Faith Lutheran Church. The group will be limited to 10 couples, and those interested should call Betty Case at 683-9505 for more information. Seminar members will be asked about issues they want to be addressed during the meetings.

Car Wash Saturday

On Saturday, Oct. 6, from noon to 4 p.m., members of the Andover High A Cappella Choir and Madrigal Singers will hold a car wash at the Bay State Bank parking lot.

Funds raised will help the choir with their plans for the year.

Colorful

Colorfully painted vans are popular today. Around 1815 the most colorful mode of transportation were conestoga wagons that were often brilliantly painted and were pulled by four to six horse teams decorated with bells. Conestoga wagons could carry loads of several tons and stretched some sixty feet, according to Old Sturbridge Village.

Portrait Campaign Studied

Selectman Norma Gammon is looking into whether Andover should join the campaign to keep the Gilbert Stuart portraits of George and Martha Washington at the Boston Athenaeum.

A letter from the Athenaeum to selectmen asked that they issue a proclamation that Andover is in favor of keeping the portraits in Boston, and not selling them to the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D. C., for $5 million. The letter also asked that a committee chairman be appointed for a committee to raise funds to save the paintings.

Selectman Susan T. Poore called the potential sale of the paintings "really a fund-raiser by the Boston Athenaeum with the two portraits being held as ransom." She said the museum had financial difficulties and offered to sell the paintings to raise money.

Gammon said she would come to Monday night's selectmen's meeting with a recommendation about what action the board should take.

History Series Set For Elderly

A 10-week series of discussions under the Senior Center Humanities Program, concentrating on local history, will begin Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 2 p.m. at the Andover Senior Citizens Center, according to Dorothy M. Winn, center director.

Sponsored by the National Council on Aging, with funds provided by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the program is designed to enrich the lives of older Americans through involvement in literature and history. Other titles in the series are A Family Album, The American Family in Literature and History, Images of Aging in Literature, Americans and the Land,

The Remembered Past: 1914-1945.

Over the past three years more than 33,000 Americans of many backgrounds have enrolled in the Senior Center Humanities Program. Some 400 senior centers, nursing homes, day-care centers and other agencies serving the older population in 45 states are participating in the program. Many seniors in the program have been inspired to undertake creative writing, dramatic presentations and oral histories.

Donovan Completes Training

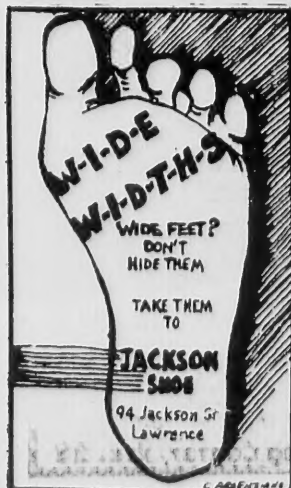

John L. Donovan, son of George D. and Marie K. Donovan of 243 Lowell St., Andover, recently completed training with the Commander, Submarine Group Five, based in San Diego.

A midshipman with the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps Unit at College of the Holy Cross, Andover, he was exposed to all the systems that make up the Navy's modern and sophisticated undersea warships. His training aboard the submarine will provide him with a better understanding of the Navy's submarine force when he enters active duty as a naval officer.

Donovan is a 1977 graduate of Andover High School.

Peanuts

Peanuts originated in southern Brazil and reached Peru a few thousand years ago. Chinese archaeology indicates this same type of peanut appeared there in 1500 B.C. Modern Chinese peanuts (unlike modern commercial peanuts) are similar to those in ancient Peru, according to Massachusetts Audubon.

Let's Stop Thievery

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I have been held up in Boston (my switch-blade totting assailants received not a dime); an attempt has been made to burglarize my house; my right front wheel was stolen last year. I took all of these indignities in stride. Last week my seven-year-old, third grader's brand new bicycle lock was stolen (not the bicycle!) sometime during the day when it was parked at Sanborn School, and now I am mad, indeed I am very angry.

My son in his innocence had neglected to remove the printed combination number, thus making it very simple for the light fingered individual to steal the lock. I am going to share the number with you — it is 5134 — and ask that if you see a friend, son, daughter, whoever, using a green chain type bicycle lock you have never seen before, you check out the combination number.

I do not expect to see the lock again but possibly if the guilty party is caught now, adult counselling will prevent future crimes by the individual involved.

What do you say folks? Let us at least try to stop the petty thievery that goes on every day in the town of Andover, which most people seem to now accept as a way of life.

Peace.

Andover Girls Make Friends Abroad

Returning AFS'ers

Returning "Americans Abroad," who are eager to tell about their summers with the American Field Service program, are, from left: Aimee Poor, Karen Shipula and Nancy Balin. They spent two months in Bolivia, Portugal and Argentina, respectively.

Three Andover High School students recently returned home after taking part in the AFS summer Americans Abroad program. The three, all girls, are seniors this year and have come back to Andover with enthusiastic comments about their experiences.

Aimee Poor, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Poor, spent her summer living as a member of a Bolivian family who, she said, were extremely kind and helpful and understanding of her language problems, as were her fellow students and teachers while she was attending school.

Aimee traveled a great deal during her stay, and says that it is impossible to compare life in Bolivia, a poor, non-industrial nation, to that in the United States. The differences are too great.

The AFS summer program runs for three months during school vacation. Aimee feels that her time spent in Bolivia was too short to get the real feeling of belonging to a family and community, and recommends that interested students apply for the full year program.

Karen Shipula, daughter of Ann Marie Schmidt, said that the Portuguese community in which she lived was very active socially. She found that participating in those activities and learning the language made her experience a very rewarding one. She found the Portuguese people to be very warm, friendly and hospitable and eager to talk with her. Altogether, her experience in Portugal was a most memorable and personally broadening one.

Nancy Balin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Balin, found that her AFS summer in

Seniors To See Hit Play

On Wednesday, Oct. 17, the Andover Council on Aging is sponsoring a trip to see Alexis Smith in "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas."

Alexis Smith (best known for her Tony award-winning performances in "Follies") will star in this production of the Broadway smash hit musical which was nominated for seven Tony Awards this year. Time Magazine calls the show "the best new musical of the season!" and Cue Magazine says, "There is neither nudity nor profanity in this rather entertaining production. In fact, it is more or less an old fashioned musical comedy made very special, very often, by the inventive and exuberant choreography of Tommy Tune ... a major success!"

The trip cost $18, including transportation and orchestra seats. Buses leave Andover at 12:30 and return at 5:30.

Reservations may be made at the Andover Senior Citizens Center, 11 Essex St. between 9 and 4 Monday through Friday.

For further information call 475-3968 or 475-4165.

Argentina meant more to her than anything else she has ever done. The people she lived with became her second family — her home away from home. She formed an especially close relationship with her Argentinian sister, Amanda, as well as with the other members of the family.

Nancy's experience in Argentina also taught her a great deal about diplomacy. She came to realize that the answers she gave to questions about the United States made lasting impressions on her Argentinian friends and neighbors.

Another Andover AFS student, Maura Cook, is spending the year in Neustadt, Germany — near Munich. She is adjusting well to the cultural changes and is looking forward to the beginning of her school year there.

Any Andover High student who wishes to participate in either the AFS summer or full year program should contact Tim Thomas or Mrs. Molly Ryden at the high school for further information.

East Jr. High Happenings

Congratulations are in order for East's soccer team which won its opening game against Greater Lawrence Regional by a score of 3-2. Two goals were scored by Zack Apgar and one by Eric Ziady. Paul Petrie and Peter Surette were defensive standouts while Scott Silva had seven saves in goal.

The team is coached by Charles Labelle of East's faculty. The next scheduled game is Monday, Oct. 1 vs. Methuen Freshmen.

The 1979 Field Hockey team opened its season last Tuesday versus Methuen. This year the team's co-captains are Jana Caldwell and Liz Gardner. Other returning players include Chris Fortier, Tracy Lawler, Kara Gemmell, Barbara Cullinan and Julie Churbuck.

This year's schedule consists of nine games with the next contest being on Oct. 2 in Chelmsford at McCarthy Junior High.

East's ninth grade cheerleaders have been practicing daily in preparation for the first football game this Friday. The cheerleaders are coached by Miss Susan Brown. Members include Laura Grams, Vicki Simpson, Julie Flaherty, Marilyn Ingram, Nancy Karp, Katie Darwin, Lisa Aiello, Jenna Himber, Liz Dowrick, Heather Hughes, Carol Avalos, Lisa Catalano, Michelle Altrogge and Liza Crowley.

Everyone here at East wishes the football team the best of luck in the opening game tomorrow!

Parents Group To Hold Sale

On Saturday, Oct. 13, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the Pike School Parents' Association will sponsor a 'New to You Sale.'

This event to be held at the school on Sunset Rock Road will involve the sale of previously owned quality merchandise. Some of the items available will be clothing, sports equipment, household artifacts, Christmas decorations, and baby items.

The association will also sponsor a table for bakery products and home canned preserves.

Special Ed Services To Be Topic

What special education services are available in Andover will be the topic of a public forum to be held Thursday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m. at the Greater Lawrence Collaborative, 10 High St., Andover.

Sponsored by the 766 Parent Advisory Council of Andover, the panel discussion will feature Kenneth Seifert, Ph.D., superintendent of schools; Pamela Kvilekval, pupil personnel administrator; and Malcolm Stanley, director of the Greater Lawrence Collaborative. Bob Ladd will serve as moderator.

Refreshments will be served following the discussion.

Those wishing further information should contact Alice Flynn, 3 Tamy's Lane, Karen VanDoren, 4 Wethersfield Drive, or Holly Greenstein, 3 Rutgers Road.

Choral Students Plan A Cabaret

On Friday and Saturday, Oct. 26 and 27, Andover High School choral students will host a "Fall Cabaret," beginning at 8 p.m. each evening at South Church.

For the past two years, the choral students have presented a "Cabaret" as a major part of their fund-raising effort. Included in the program will be soloists, the A Capella Choir, Madrigal Singers, the Barbershop Chorus and Quartet and specialty acts.

Dessert, coffee and soft drinks will be served.

Last year, funds raised at "Cabaret" helped to send the High School Choirs to Philadelphia where they competed in the Liberty Bell Music Festival and were awarded silver and bronze medals.

Tickets for the 1979 Fall Cabaret may be purchased through any high school choral student.

Four Tons Oil

The head of a sperm whale is one-quarter of its total length of 60 feet. Above the upper jaw is a mass of oil-filled connective tissue which can contain four tons of oil, Massachusetts Audubon says. The oil enables the whale to remain neutrally buoyant (same density as the surrounding water) when it is submerged up to 80 minutes, the longest submersion for a marine mammal.

Remember, The Haven will be closed all day Oct. 8 for Columbus Day. The morning of Oct. 9 at 10 a.m. Mr. Robert McQuade, Andover's Director of Public Works, will be guest speaker on the Know Your Town series.

Every Wednesday afternoon there is a diet Workshop conducted at The Haven. It costs $8 to register and $3 per session thereafter, but is an opportunity to take pound off sensibly and in a way to Keep Them Off.

The afternoon of Oct. 11 at the "Information Please" program at 2 p.m. "Your Social Security" will be discussed. Sue Vose of the Lawrence Social Security office will be the speaker. You'll have an opportunity to ask questions.

The Andover Historical Society will present a ten-week series on "Exploring Local History." Marsha Rooney, Director of the Historical Society, will present the program beginning Oct. 16 at 2 p.m. The course is made possible through a grant from the National Council on Aging, and will include visits to local historical sites, a consideration of varying architectural styles and will also touch upon the people, places, structures and events that give character and quality to a neighborhood and a town.

You might start thinking about a day trip The Haven is sponsoring Oct. 25 to Newburyport leaving The Haven about 9:30 a.m. and returning by 4:30. There will be a narrated tour of this recently reconstructed seacoast city. There will be a tour of the Cushing House, luncheon at 10 Center St. (choice of sirloin steak with herb butter or Boston scrod) and then a visit to the Maritime Museum and Custom House, with an opportunity to browse through some of the charming shops in the mall. Cost for the day is $12. Sign up now at The Haven.

Oct. 9 the mini-clinic will be held at Chestnut Court. Every Wednesday afternoon between 2 and 4 you may have your blood pressure checked at The Haven. This is also an opportunity to talk to Mary Hamilton, Andover's public health nurse, regarding any problems you may be having. No appointment is necessary for this "every Wednesday" program.

Second Lieutenant Mary E. King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. King of 71 Harold Parker Road, Andover, has arrived for duty at Kirkland Air Force Base.

Lieutenant King, a general duty nurse, is now serving with a unit of the Andrews Air Force Base Military Airlift Command.

A 1973 graduate of Andover High School, Lieutenant King earned a bachelor's degree in 1978 from Northeastern Committee will meet at one o'clock on Thursday, Oct. 11 at the Haven to decide on new trips.

One study showed that over a 40-year period, stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange gained an average of 9.3 percent a year.

Honored At Church

Specially honored members of the Free Christian Church: James and Margaret Edgar, 29 Morton St., the oldest married couple in the congregation; Rev. Dr. Jack L. Daniel, Jr., pastor; Thomas B. Gorrie, 2 Stratford Road, and Mrs. Isabella Neil, Chestnut Court, the oldest active members of the church. Mr. Gorrie has the distinction of holding membership for the longest time, seventy-three years.

Church Honors Seniors

The Free Christian Church recently held a special worship service and reception to honor members of the congregation over the age of 72. The occasion was the 72nd anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone, in 1907, of the present church building at 31 Elm St.

Sixty-seven current members were born before or in 1907, and a large number of them were on hand Sept. 23 to receive flowers, certificates, and tribute for their many years of Christian service in the church and the community. Special appreciation was expressed to the 16 men and women who have been members of the church for 60 years or longer.

The oldest member of the church, Mrs. Jane Robb, 97, was unable to attend the observance. Several members were available to receive unique recognition. Thomas B. Gorrie, 92, and Mrs. Isabella Neil, 91, are the oldest active members. Gorrie is the longest term member, having joined the church in 1906. Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar are the oldest married couple in the church; they have been married for 65 years.

An array of photographs and memorabilia from the early years of the church was on display during the coffee hour reception that followed the worship service.

Installation Service At West Sunday

On Sunday, Oct. 7, the Andover Association of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ will install the Rev. Nancy M. Klassen as associate pastor of West Parish Church.

The service of installation will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday evening in the West Parish Sanctuary, Reservation Road. It will be preceded by an Ecclesiastical Council at 4 p.m. There will be a light supper in the Parish Hall between events.

Dr. Oliver Powell will be guest preacher for the 7 p.m. service. Dr. Powell is the former Metropolitan Boston Association Area Minister for the United Church of Christ, and present Albert W. Palmer Visiting Professor of Ministry of the Theological Seminary. Dr. Powell has held pastorates in many areas of the country — Oak Park, Illinois, Winchester and Washington, D.C. He is the author of 'The Household of Power,' a book which focuses on the role of prayer in the life of the church. He has also authored articles on numerous subjects from pastoral care, home churches, and the essence of the United Church of Christ. He was the presiding minister for Rev. Klassen's ordination of North Congregational Church, Woburn where she served as pastor.

Presiding over the installation is Mrs. Iona Henderson, moderator of the Andover Association.

Following the installation, Dr. Otis Maxwell, senior minister of West Parish will issue the charge to Rev. Klassen focusing on her responsibilities as associate pastor of West Parish. The Rev. William H. Brittain, former Pastor of the Allin Congregational Church of Dedham and minister with whom Rev. Klassen served at Christ Church United in Lowell, will serve the charge to the members of West Parish in their support of Rev. Klassen.

Other participants in the service: Rev. David Duncan, associate minister of West Parish; Ms. Faith Johnson, director of Christian Education at West Parish Church; Frank Hopkins, chairperson of the Fellowship Care Committee, West Parish Church; Ted Johnson, treasurer of the Missions Council, West Parish Church; and, Donald Nickerson, chairperson of the Diaconate, West Parish Church.

Also taking part is Mrs. Dorothy Green, Alto Soloist for the Melrose Highlands Congregational Church; Mark Peterson, director of music and organist for West Parish; and the West Parish Choir.

The Ecclesiastical Council preceding the Service of Installation will be chaired by Mrs. Iona Henderson, Andover Association Moderator and assisted by the Rev. Pricilla Schumm, chairperson of the Church and Ministry Committee of the Andover Association and associate minister of the Trinitarian Congregational Church of North Andover. At the council, Rev. Klassen will present her credentials for installation and a paper sharing reflections on pastoral care. There will follow a time for questions and sharing among those

Donate Oaks

John M. Peckham, 111, President of the Massachusetts Association of Realtors, has announced that a contribution for 25 oak trees has been sent to the Alabama hurricane torn areas of Mobile and Baldwin County. The gift was announced to some 375 Realtors gathered at the Massachusetts Association of Realtors 55th annual convention in Cerritos Beach, Puerto Rico, Sept. 16-20.

In announcing the gift, President Peckham, having previously joined with the Realtors of Alabama at their annual convention held during hurricane Frederic conveyed his impression of the bravery, loyalty, and dedication of the Alabama Realtors during the storm.

Benefit Performance In Lowell

Last minute arrangements are being made for the musical production "Let There Be Music" starring the Archdiocesan Singers to be held at the Lowell Memorial Auditorium on Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

One of the musical highlights will be "Charlie's on the M.T.A.", done by Father Leonard O'Malley, St. Michael's Lowell, Father John Dooher, St. Augustine's So. Boston, and Father Bob Beale, St. Luke's Belmont. Even Father Martin of St. Robert's Tewksbury-Andover has worked up a new routine... "Going To Build A Mountain." A medley of Broadway tunes will be sung by Father Richard Mehm of St. Rita's Haverhill accompanied by Father Richard Powers of St. Luke's Belmont. Back across the river at St. Rita's

Lowell, Father Ned Carroll will give his rendition of some traditional and inspirational songs. Father Paul Rouse of St. Francis So. Weymouth, the group's accompanist, sing the familiar hit song from "The Man of LaMancha" "The Impossible Dream". Adding a touch of Irish to the evening will be Father John Connelly and Father Lawrence Drennan, both of St. Francis So. Weymouth.

These ten priests have volunteered to perform for the benefit of the Dominican Sisters. Tickets are available at St. Robert's Rectory, Haggetts Pond Road, Andover.

Ms. McGilvray Participates In Session

Sue McGilvray of Andover, a ruling elder in the United Presbyterian Church of Burlington, will participate when that church's Session (governing body) gathers on Sept. 28 and 29 at the Asbury Grove Center in Hamilton to conduct a planning retreat.

The retreat will be designed to establish closer relationships among the nine ruling elders and the Presbyterian church's new teaching elder, Pastor Roderick MacDonald. The group will evaluate the church's life and program by symbolizing its strengths and weaknesses and set specific goals for its five Commissions that direct day-to-day church activities.

Ms. McGilvray currently chairs the Membership Commission, which is charged with overseeing matters dealing with membership in the Burlington Presbyterian Church. It keeps up-to-date rolls of active members, notifies receiving churches when members move, calls upon prospective members, and conducts "inquiry" meetings for persons interested in the Presbyterian church.

In addition to singing in the choir, Ms. McGilvray also sits on the Interpretation and Stewardship Commission, the Presbyterian Church's body that deals with the effective use of members' time, talent, and treasure.

Crafts Fair

Forty New England artisans will market and display their handcraft items at Gordon College's Crafts Fair Saturday, Oct. 13, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., under the campus tent in Wenham.

Special features include patchwork items, knitwear, jewelry, stuffed animals, paintings, photography, and Christmas items.

The public is welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyall M. Smith

Smith - Gould

Karen Lois Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith H. Gould, 10 Strawberry Hill Road, Andover, became the bride of Lyall Martin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alistair M. Smith, of Alexandria, La., July 28 at a 5:30 p.m. ceremony in South Church.

Rev. Dr. Westy Egmont, pastor, officiated.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of chiffon and satin, designed and handcrafted by the bride. The gown displayed a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and sleeves of Venice lace, accenting lace appliques, and was completed with a deep ruffle falling into a train. Her veil was made of imported illusion matching Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, blue delphina and baby's breath.

Laurie B. Gould, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Catherine B. Henry, Mrs. Dorothy P. Bauder and Miss Leslie A. Spear. Kimberly L. Gould, sister of the bride, served as flower girl.

Robert Cameron was best man and ushering guests were John Smith, brother of the bride, John Heald and Donald Osterhaut.

They are residing at 31 Congress St., Nashua, N.H.

The bride is a graduate of Framingham State College and is a teacher of home economics in the Haverhill school system. Smith is employed by the Nashua, N.H. police department and is attending the University of New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Konjoian

Konjoian - Provencal

Tama Lea Provencal, daughter of Edgar and Audrey Provencal, 210 Chandler Road, became the bride of Peter Stephan Konjoian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Konjoian, 221 Chandler Road, at an Aug. 17 wedding in N.W. Christian Church, Columbus, Ohio.

Rev. William Crowl, officiated.

The bride is a graduate of Andover High school, and had been employed at the Essex-Broadway Savings Bank. She is currently employed by BancOhio, in Columbus, Ohio.

Konjoian, also an Andover High graduate, received a degree from the University of New Hampshire and a Master's degree in horticulture at Ohio State University, where he is currently pursuing a doctorate degree.

The couple reside in Columbus, Ohio.

Symphony Bus To Resume

On October 5, the Boston Symphony bus will begin its 1979-1980 season of round trips to Boston on the Fridays of symphony concerts. The bus is chartered by the Andover-North Andover Friends of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and is open to anyone interested in travelling to Boston on those days, whether a symphony goer or not.

The bus will leave promptly at 10 a.m. from the corner of Salem and Main Streets, Andover, opposite the bell tower at Phillips Academy. Four stops are made in the city for the convenience of riders: Arlington St., near Boylston; Prudential Center; Symphony Hall; The Museum of Fine Arts.

The return trip leaves from Symphony Hall after the concert and comes directly to Andover, arriving at approximately 5 p.m. Full or partial subscriptions, as well as single round trips, may be purchased.

Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Alexander Z. Warren or Mrs. Hart D. Leavitt.

Mothers March Is Scheduled

Mrs. Ruth McAndrew, chairman of the 1980 Mothers' March Against Birth Defects, today announced preparation for this traditional event is underway.

She said volunteers will direct attention to the seriousness of adolescent pregnancy in the Merrimack Valley during the appeal Jan. 27.

"The impact of adolescent pregnancy on very young girls and their babies has long-term health, educational, and financial repercussions on both," said Mrs. McAndrew. "Volunteers will ask their neighbors how seriously they view the problem, how well their community is dealing with it and whether they favor or oppose family life education in schools, including genetic, nutrition and the biology of reproduction. We look forward to long-range planning in this area with our school system, the PTA, health providers, and religious and civic leaders," she added.

Mrs. McAndrew, a residual polio patient, resides in Georgetown with her husband Bill where wheelchair bound, she has maintained a full role of mother and homemaker.

Volunteers are needed for the Mothers March. Anyone interested in helping should contact the Chapter at 89 No. Main St., Andover.

November Club Plans Party

The November Club is planning a Harvest Time Card Party to be held Tuesday, Oct. 16, at the Fellowship Hall of the South Church on Central Street at 12:30 p.m. Dessert and coffee will be served.

Flea Market To Benefit Association

The Big Brother/Big Sister Association of Greater Lawrence is having a flea market on Sunday, Oct. 14 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the DeMoulas parking lot in the North Andover Mall on Route 114. Rain date is Oct. 21.

The Association is looking for items such as used furniture, sports equipment, toys, bric-a-brac, books, records, etc. This is a great opportunity to do that Fall cleaning of the house, closets or garage. Transportation is available for items which are donated to this event by calling the Big Brother/Big Sister Association.

The proceeds of this fund raising event will be used to continue the Big Brother/Big Sister services to the Children of Greater Lawrence until Jan. 1. At that time the United Fund will be providing some funding to this program.

Stamps

United States postage stamps were first issued on July 1, 1847, according to Old Sturbridge Village, the living history museum in Sturbridge.

Academy Tour For Newcomers

The Oct. 9 meeting of the Andover-North Andover Newcomers will be a tour of Phillips Academy followed by lunch at the Andover Inn. Also, the movie "Here's Andover" will be shown for those wishing to view it. Reservations are limited and must be received by Oct. 4.

The Progressive Dinner scheduled for Oct. 20 is the kickoff couple activity. After cocktails at the home of a newcomer, couples will proceed to another home for the main course, followed by dessert at a final home. The work is divided among those attending.

Newcomers offers its members a variety of daytime and evening activities. Residents of Andover or North Andover who have not joined Newcomers in the past, may call Terry McNally of Andover or Harriet Guarnera of North Andover.

Gardeners To Meet Tuesday

The October meeting of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club will be held Tuesday Oct. 9 at the residence of Mrs. Florence Anderson, 140 High Plain Road, Andover.

The speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Donna Scanlon, Home Horticulturist of Essex County Extension Service. She will lecture on "Biological and Mechanical Control of Garden Pests."

Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Lucy Keegan and Mrs. Peggy Turgiss.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — October 1904

The grocery stores of the town resumed opening on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings but a movement is on foot to have the stores open only on Tuesday and Saturday evenings.

A meeting of the board of selectmen was held in Town Hall on Monday afternoon but no business of importance was transacted. Thomas Platt was drawn as juror.

A sewing bee of the Courteous Circle will be held with Mrs. Frank Jenkins Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 8:45. All the members of the Circle are asked to come and bring their thimbles. Important matters will be brought up.

A shirtwaist dancing party will be held on Thursday evening, Oct. 13, at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Thomas's Orchestra and admission will be 50 cents.

Miss Elizabeth Cross was treated to a genuine surprise at the hands of her many friends when on Friday night they met at her home on Elm Street.

The first drill of the new Republican campaign club was held last evening on Central Street opposite South Church. Capt. John Henderson was in command.

50 Years Ago — October 1929

A delegation of nine citizens from Ballardvale appeared before the school committee which met Tuesday evening and presented a petition to reopen the seventh grade in Ballardvale instead of bringing the children up from Ballardvale to the Stowe Junior High School. The answer given out to this petition was no.

Gorgeous sunshine and midsummer temperature provided ideal conditions for a September garden party held last Saturday afternoon for benefit of Camp Wampatuck on the grounds of Mrs. Austin P. Washe under the auspices of the Junior Courteous Circle of the King's Daughters. The lawn provided ample space for the tables displaying a variety of goods for sale.

The Shawsheen Mills pay to Andover the largest corporation tax, $90,841.20. The American Woolen Company takes second place with $48,108.30.

A fire caused probably by a spark generated by the picking machine, swept through the cotton batting factory of P. W. Moody at Ballardvale yesterday causing several thousand dollars damage.

Orlando Barr of Haverhill has been chosen as organist and choirmaster at the South Church to succeed John A. Arnold, who signed because of other interests.

25 Years Ago — October 1954

Andover's first United Fund campaign will open Monday under the leadership of a large and enthusiastic group of local citizens acting on the general and special committees with selectman Stafford A. Lindsay, local chairman.

Arrangements for the open dinner meeting of the Andover Board of Trade to be held at the Log Cabin on Wednesday, Oct. 20, include plans for an evening of entertainment similar to the employees and clerks dinner meeting held last spring.

A three-year contract for an additional school bus was awarded Tuesday night by the school committee to Francis J. Trombley of North Andover using a 1953 Ford bus driven by himself at an annual figure of $4050 plus 40 cents a mile for all mileage over 75 miles per day.

The annual membership drive of the Andover Boosters' club will open next Monday night with numbers of Punchard High students assisting.

The use of all extra trucks engaged by the board of public works to assist in clearing the streets after the two hurricanes was discontinued and the force of extra employees on this duty has been reduced to ten.

10 Years Ago — October 1969

So many educators, architects and out-of-town officials want to visit Andover's new Bancroft School that Principal Earl Simon is instituting twice-monthly regular visitors tours to control visitations and make them more productive.

Andover was among the highest recipients of federal surplus property received through the state civil defense agency in 1969. The town received two generators and trailers valued at $92,200 when new.

The special October Town Meeting, with almost as many articles as the annual Town Meeting in March, is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium in East Junior High School. Dr. Albert Greenberg, chairman of the finance committee, reported Wednesday that his group had not made a final decision on the major financial items concerning the expansion of the central school. Horneson Whittier Court will be the subject of discussion at the special town meeting Monday night. The school department wants to obtain the property for the expansion of the central school.

Charlie Chaplin Retrospective

The Fall Friday Film Series at Memorial Hall Library will start this Friday, Oct. 5 and continue through Nov. 23. The first five weeks will feature "A Charlie Chaplin Retrospective" and this week's masterpiece will be "City Lights." In this memorable 1931 film, the little tramp attempts to restore the sight of a lovely blind girl. Although produced during the early sound period, Chaplin rejected dialog preferring to continue silent screen pantomime. The result is at once excruciatingly funny and terribly sad. All Friday films begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. and are open to the public without charge.

Oldies But Goodies

Sunday Film Specials
Each Sunday in October, Memorial Hall Library will show a nostalgic "oldie" film. The feature for Oct. 7 will be "Flying Down to Rio" with Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers and Dolores Del Rio. This was the first film to team Fred and Ginger and their memorable performance of the "Carioca" is set against the exotic background of Rio de Janeiro. "Moby Dick," "The Turtles of Tahiti" and "The Gold Diggers of 1935" will be shown on following Sundays. Sunday films begin promptly at 2:30 p.m. and are open to the public without charge.

Ella Buzzotta October Artist

The paintings of Ella Buzzotta of Arlington are on display in Memorial Hall Library during the month of October. A freelance artist as well as an art teacher, Mrs. Buzzotta enjoys painting in all media. Her love of horses is evident in much of her work. She attended the Art Institute of Boston, the Boston Museum School and the Butera School of Art. A past president of the Arlington Art Association, she has exhibited throughout the U.S. and received many awards.

October Displays

October is National Restaurant Month, an event held each year to encourage people to "eat out" frequently. Accordingly, Memorial Hall Library will have on display throughout October, menus from many of the area's finest restaurants. Drop by and see what appeals to your family's taste. And for future reference, a permanent file of menus will be kept upon completion of the display.

The week of Oct. 7-13 has been designated "National Employ the Handicapped Week." Memorial Hall Library will feature a display of books and materials of interest to disabled people and their families. Emphasis will be on rehabilitation, jobs, education, recreation as well as employment opportunities for the handicapped.

Children's Room News
By Bridget Bennett
"Films on Fridays" are here again! Our first show this fall takes place Friday, Oct. 5 when we have planned a special program of "Mole" films. Animated in Czechoslovakia, these movies feature a lovable mole who gets himself in and out of all sorts of humorous predicaments. All pre-schoolers and their parents are welcome to join us in the Children's Room for either our morning screening at 10:30 a.m. or for the afternoon show which begins at 2 p.m.

"Pajama Party," our evening story hour is also now in session. Every Thursday evening at 7 p.m. we offer 45 minutes of stories, songs and games.

Pre-schoolers between 3½ and 5 years of age are welcome to join us at this time and they may come dressed in their p.j.'s

Memorial Hall Library will be closed on Monday, Oct. 8 in observance of Columbus Day.

Tests Show Us To Be 'Exceptional'

By Linda S. Corbett

For the sixth year in a row, Andover students have produced "exceptional" results on standardized achievement tests, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert reported to the school committee last week.

Ellington Concert Tomorrow

Some tickets still are available for tomorrow night's performance of the Duke Ellington Orchestra at Andover's Sheraton Rolling Green. According to Douglas Mitchell, chairman of the entertainment benefitting Andover ABC (A Better Chance) program, tickets will be available through 6 p.m. Friday at branches of the Andover Savings Bank, and any remaining will be on sale at the door at the Rolling Green between 7 and 8 p.m.

Led by Mercer Ellington, the band will play for listening and dancing from 8:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. under sponsorship of the Gillette Company. The internationally famous Ellington Orchestra was named last week by Ernie Santussuosso, Boston music critic, as one of the name jazz bands to lead a jazz revival at the Strand Theater in Boston later this year.

Tickets are available at all branches of the Andover Savings Bank: 61 Main St., Andover; 108 Main St., North Andover; 995 Main St., Tewksbury; 91 Pleasant Valley, Methuen.

Bus Trip To Quincy Market Set

The Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends of the New England Home for Little Wanderers is sponsoring a bus trip to Quincy Market in Boston on Friday, Oct. 19.

The bus will leave Andover at 9 a.m. and return at 3 p.m.

For more information or tickets call Mrs. Lous Bourbeau, Argilla Road; Mrs. Eric Angell, Winter Street, North Andover or any board member.

Not only are all of the averages above the 83rd percentile nationally, he said, but some students were going "clear off the scale."

Seifert objected to recent articles about how bad public school education is.

"The results we have had here are not by accident," he said. "As superintendent, I'm very, very proud of the teachers and the students. What we have here is more than a light under a bushel basket."

Asst. Supt. Charles Mitsakos added that the system wasn't just being romanced by the test results, but had already started retesting some students they felt could be doing better, and planning curriculum changes for the future.

Each school has received a breakdown of scores by grade level, and general information about the scores was presented to interested parents at a town-wide meeting last night. Mitsakos said specific questions about individual students should be addressed to the principals.

A detailed report on the test scores is also available at Memorial Hall Library.

Seifert noted that local scores were "significantly" above national averages on the achievements, and that for the past couple of years, high school students had scored higher on their college board tests as well.

On a recent state-wide field test to assess basic skills, Seifert said the average 8th grader in Andover had scored higher than the average 11th grader in the state, and that the average 11th grader here had scored higher than the average 12th grader state-wide.

Mitsakos explained that last year the system used the Circus test for achievement in primary grades one and two, and STEP III tests in grades three through 11.

In Grades 1 and 2, Mitsakos said 97 percent of the subtest scores were above the 70th percentile nationally, with 80 percent above the 90th percentile. In the upper grades, 99 percent were above the 70th percentile with 98 percent above the 80th percentile and 84 percent above the 90th percentile.

Mitsakos said the scores "almost get monotonous" as one looks at them, and that one of the significant findings is the uniform performance throughout the system.

"There is not a dumb school and a smart school," he said, "regardless of what people might think about themselves and their neighborhoods."

Even the lower students, he said, still are 30 to 40 percent per-above the lower students nationally.

"It shows we're meeting the needs of different kinds of students," Mitsakos said.

He added that it is school committee policy to give achievement tests every year, though the administration recommended last spring that annual testing unnecessary, and that this was one of the areas where the budget could be cut.

Committeeman Don Robb particularly noted the "overwhelming consistency" of scores throughout the system. That, he said, was a real achievement.

Colleague Joe Finn commended the schools for not only meeting a certain level of excellence, but "continuing to stay up there."

"It's a very difficult task," he said, "when the only way to go is down."

Choral Parents To Meet

The Andover High School Choral Parents Association will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Choir Room at the High School.

All choral students and their parents are invited to attend. Of prime importance will be further discussion of a spring trip for the choirs and plans for the Fall "Cabaret" scheduled for October 26 and 27.

Honored For Service

Mildred McKeough of Andover, recently became the sixth employee of Inforex, Inc. to celebrate ten years of service.

She joined Inforex's purchasing department in 1969 as secretary to the materials manager. As the department grew, she advanced to office supervisor overseeing seven secretaries. In 1977, she was promoted to associate buyer and in 1978 she was again promoted to buyer. Her expertise is in purchasing a variety of computer-related products used in the manufacture of Inforex systems.

Charter Change Aimed At Chain Of Command

Sampling Schoolwork

Sean Howard, 6, shows his mom, Peggy, some of the work he's been doing at West Elementary School. Mrs. Howard visited the school last week for the school's annual open house.

Building Group Awaits Decision

The school building committee was still waiting Thursday for the school committee to adopt an official school enrollment projection.

Committeeman John Eaton said the school committee would not adopt a population projection until the differences between the two submitted had been explained.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said a meeting to discuss those differences was scheduled for next week between the authors of the projections.

The major difference between the reports lies in the elementary enrollment predictions after 1985. The Merrimack Valley Planning Commission (MVPC) predicted a sharp decline in elementary enrollment while Dr. Joseph Baglio and Dr. Phillip Ahouse predicted an increase between 1985 and 1990.

Meanwhile, the building committee received an interim report and a bill for $8,671.23 from architects Perly F. Gilbert. The bill was for an inventory of all existing school buildings. The architects visited all school buildings, measured them and drew plans of them. So far, about half of the $30,000 designated for the school building inventory and review has been paid to the architects.

The interim report, delivered by architect Herb Glassman, was a two-sheet set of figures outlining the design capacities of all school buildings, current enrollment, and projected enrollments for 1983.

The figures were then tabulated to show how many students each would be in elementary schools, junior highs and high schools under different grade divisions. Grade divisions considered were: 6-3-3, 5-3-4, 6-2-4, 3-3-3-3, and 4-4-4. The 3-3-3-3 was not one of the divisions the school committee wanted considered, but Glassman said it was included as a variation of the 6-3-3.

The three numbers represent, respectively, the number of grades in elementary schools, junior highs and high schools.

After reviewing the numbers, Frank Hill, school building committee member, suggested a 7-2-3 division as a way to house projected students. He said it might be possible then to shut down "Old Crumby," referring to East Junior High

An amendment to the town charter, providing for the appointment of a zoning administrator, would provide consistency in the town's organizational structure and provide a unified chain of command.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark explained the need for such an official within the town's administrative framework. He has proposed an amendment to the charter which is still under discussion by selectmen.

The proposal still includes confirmation of major managerial appointments by selectmen.

Clark explained that when he was appointed to the Andover administrative position, selectmen asked him to concern himself with problems facing the town in the area of growth and development.

He addressed this immediately, meeting with all boards officials and commissions dealing with growth and planning, resulting in the creation of the department of community development and planning. Subsequently Rhys Kear was named to head the department which co-ordinates the departments of health, conservation, planning and building.

Within the department is the building inspector, who serves as the local administrator of the state building code and local enforcer of building and zoning regulations, under statute.

But state law allows for home rule and the establishment of a local zoning administrator.

The manager feels that the head of the community development department should have such responsibility.

As matters stand, appeals from the decision of the building inspector can be petitioned to the zoning board of appeals.

That same petitioning for relief would apply with the appointment of a zoning administrator.

"It gives the responsibility of growth and development of the town to the department director and grants him the authority to administer that responsibility.

"It provides a consistent organizational structure and unified chain of command."

Clarifying a second portion of the amendment, that of selectmen confirmation of appointments, Clark points out that since the board is the policy making body of the town, it should have direction over boards and commissions which tend to contribute to policy making decisions.

Selectmen, by charter, have the appointive power over the board of appeals, the board of registrars of voters and the town accountant.

"Many town boards and commissions help shape policy for the town and since that is the selectmen's responsibility, they should confirm appointments," Clark said.

To be removed from confirmation by selectmen are appointments which are administrative in nature and should not be subject to policy or political consideration.

Such appointments would include police, fire and inspection services, DPW workers, general staff people. Such appointments should be made, based on fitness for the position alone, Clark said.

Selectmen, in discussing the proposed amendment Monday night brought up arguments against it which led to the matter being tabled for the present.

A charter amendment must be filed with the town Clerk six months before the regular town meeting at which it is brought up for a vote. The amendment under consideration was filed four days late to be considered for Spring 1980 town meeting, so the vote will be put off until Spring 1981.

Selectman Susan T. Poore objected to the community development director being given additional responsibility "when he has his hands full now."

She said she thought there might be "hair-splitting" over where the zoning administrator's authority ends and where the zoning board of appeals begins.

Poore said she did not want the health staff of the town and the building inspectors to be appointed without selectmen's approval, as suggested by the amendment.

Says School Closing Is Already Tested

Virginia Cole suggested to school building committee members last Thursday that the town was already experiencing the impact of a closed elementary school.

Referring to Bancroft Elementary School, closed temporarily for roof repairs, Cole said the town should already know what it is like to have a school shut down.

Cole's comments referred to a school committee request for a plan to possibly shut down one elementary school by the end of the school year.

Cole added that she heard that even with some Bancroft students in West Elementary school, there is still an empty classroom there.

Iora Alexander, assistant principal of the school, said Tuesday that the room Cole referred to was probably the school's temporary art room. Alexander said the regular art room had been made into a classroom for Bancroft students.

The temporary art room is being remodeled, she said, for use by special needs students from Andover and neighboring towns.

"If there's an empty classroom," Alexander said, "I'd love to know where it is."

Dazzling Them With Figures

Back in the Spring of this year, at the annual town meeting, voters were told there would be no decision reached at that time on proposed new school construction.

The decision was reached because at the time there appeared to be too much confusion to present an acceptable project to the townspeople.

Granting the school building and school committees time to review statistics, needs and space available, would offer the town a more sensible solution to meeting the town's educational needs of the future.

What has transpired since that time seems to be making the matter more confusing, particularly in light of events of the past few weeks.

The enrollment study committees have come up with figures which alter substantially those applied to the original project when presented to town meeting of 1977 for planning funds.

Projections now point to a lower school enrollment than originally predicted, a statistic we tend to doubt somewhat, but then, we aren't in the population projection field.

Also, during the past week, based on information available, the school committee indicated there is a possibility of the closing of an elementary school by the end of this year.

The enrollment forecasters say that the secondary school population will continue to be the major problem facing the town. This is based on people moving into Andover with youngsters of secondary school age, coupled with the fact of a declining birth rate.

This tends to be a valid statistic.

Any indication that Andover's population will decrease over the next decade or so, seems out of line with the monthly and annual building reports which continue to demonstrate that an Andover address is appealing to at least 200 new home buyers per year.

The impact of major industrial development in the town could also have an impact on the population over a period of time.

As for closing an elementary school by the end of the year, one official pointed out this week, and we tend to agree, that such a possibility is already being put to the test, with Bancroft closed temporarily for repairs.

The school population seems to be adapting to that emergency situation quite admirably at the moment.

With all of these statistics and situations arising, however, the town seems no closer to moving in a direction toward a school building program, — if indeed one is needed.

Maybe, the building committee should be looking at a total renovation program, rather than a new construction plan.

In any case, it would appear that those concerned with the total project — school building and school committees — are running out of time to provide some direction.

It is now October. The annual town meeting will be next April, which at this time of year may seem a long way off.

But weeks and months have a way of passing swiftly.

Back in the Spring, the voters were asked, in essence, to allow the school construction planners some time, in order to determine a proper direction for the town to follow with regard to school housing plans.

There were to be meetings throughout the summer to accelerate the obtaining of the necessary information on which to base some decisions. Few were held.

Other than the obtaining of the enrollment projections, there seems to be no definitive direction as yet.

If such is not forthcoming soon, then quite possibly renovation, new construction, or whatever may be needed, won't make the 1980 town meeting.

And, as far as the townspeople are concerned, we would consider it appropriate if they deemed that the deadline, which could be disastrous to Andover's school housing future.

JACK ANDERSON WEEKLY SPECIAL

Mr. Carter Should Walk, Not Run, For Re-election in 1980, Maybe?

By Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- When Jimmy Carter collapsed during a running marathon near his Camp David mountain retreat earlier this month, his White House image makers began fumbling with their political worry beads. News photographs of the president showed him gasping and groaning with mouth agape as Secret Service agents helped him to a limousine to whisk him back within the confines of Camp David.

Carter subsequently that day made a subdued public appearance at a gathering of his fellow marathoners and sought to grin the whole episode off. His personal physician, Dr. William Lukash, twice examined the chief executive and pronounced him in good health.

Carter aides quickly commented that the former Naval Academy cross-country runner did well to last nearly half the six-mile endurance trial compared to other potential presidential rivals.

Yet the scary episode demonstrated that health and physical fitness will be a factor in the 1980 run for the White House. Carter, who becomes 55 years old on Monday, is believed to be in generally good physical fettle but the blind staggers he developed on the Catoctin Mountain run raised questions as to his ability to carry the tremendous physical and emotional strains that every president undergoes in office. Some medical authorities associated his exhaustion with emotional stress.

Subsequent to the publicly recorded collapse, we learned from inside observers that the jogging president still shows signs of strain. He recently conducted a briefing on the SALT II treaty and many of those who were there reported to us that he looked "ashen" and "gray." Despite the importance of the issue, they said, he appeared preoccupied and had trouble concentrating.

Even White House sources acknowledge he is physically less bouncy than a year ago but they insist Carter is physically fit.

Since the days of robust big-game hunter Teddy Roosevelt, every occupant of the White House has engaged in some form of sports or exercise at his doctor's urging. Franklin D. Roosevelt, although crippled by polio, swam. Harry S. Truman took brisk morning walks. Dwight D. Eisenhower, even after his heart attack, golfed. John F. Kennedy went sailing. Lyndon Johnson rode horseback around his ranch. Richard Nixon went fishing in the Bahamas with his millionaire friends. Gerry Ford, an all-Big Ten football player, swam, skied and golfed.

Jimmy Carter, however, may be overdoing it to show his athletic prowess. Perhaps he should try walking instead of jogging for a second term in the White House.

CARTER'S BOOBY-TRAPS: With Teddy Kennedy looming in the wings and Carter's popularity sagging, the president's path to re-election is currently beset with some explosive political booby-traps involving his closest confidants -- Bert Lance and Hamilton Jordan.

Lance, who bowed out under pressure as the administration's budget director, is under indictment for his slipshod practices when he was the president's "friendly banker" back in Georgia.

Jordan, now Carter's chief White House honcho, has been charged with participating in the cocaine-sniffing scene in New York's discotheque society and at Hollywood parties. The charges against the 35-year-old presidential protege thus far have been pretty nebulous but nevertheless the press and television have given extensive coverage to the allegations.

The most potentially ruinous scandal may be exploded, however, by a grand jury which is investigating a possible White House cover-up of a Robert Vesco scandal. Vesco is the unscrupulous financier who did a moonlight flit from this country to escape jail for his fiduciary misdoings.

This column disclosed that Vesco enlisted the help of two Georgians early in the Carter administration to approach the White House in the hope of ending extradition proceedings against him.

It has been established that one of the Georgians, Spencer Lee IV, accepted a $10,000 downpayment from Vesco and approached Richard Harden, a Jordan chum in the White House chain of command. With visions of additional millions dancing in his head, Lee told Harden of Vesco's approach. The White House version is that Harden touted him off any further efforts on Vesco's behalf.

Yet when we appeared before the grand jury at our request, we discovered that the panel had had no prior knowledge of the White House involvement. The Justice Department has shuffled three different prosecutors in and out of the presentation. The conscientious grand jury foreman, Ralph Ulmer, sought to quit his post, charging in a letter to the presiding federal judge that "coverup activities are being orchestrated within the Department of Justice under the concept that the Administration must be protected at all costs."

We have learned that other grand jurors are becoming just as disgruntled as their foreman over the handling of the case.

WATCH ON WASTE: Lobbyists for the nation's hospitals have succeeded thus far in smothering any legislation to curb their inordinate profiteering at the expense of the sick and dying. An unpublished report prepared by the Government Accounting Office for Sen. Herman Talmadge shows how the hospital profession is pursuing a devil-take-the-hindmost purchasing policy as long as the customer pays the bill.

A study of six cities revealed that hospital purchasing agents pay wide variations in buying such basic supplies as bandages and oxygen units. The GAO investigators found that buyers in the same city rarely checked with each other on commonplace orders. They found that medical supply salesmen often conned hospital purchasing agents into thinking they were getting special price deals. The salesmen urged that the deal had to be kept hush-hush. The GAO reported that on most of the deals the hospitals were being stung for more than the going price.

Here's another example of how the money the American taxpayers pay for medical care is going up the flue. The federal government spent over a billion dollars last year under Medicare for prescription drugs for the poor. The Washington-based Health Research Group has found that the states which operate the program pay out between $200 million and $300 million annually on drugs and medications which the federal Food and Drug Administration has found to be ineffective. Back in 1970, the U.S. Surgeon General announced that this would be a no-no, but apparently no one is minding the store.

Blood Drive At Church Today

Red Cross blood reserves in this area are exhausted, and donors are urgently needed according to reports from the Red Cross this week.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Baptist Church in Andover from 2 to 8 p.m., Thursday Oct. 4, and prospective donors are urged to make every effort to give blood at that time. There will be a nursery to care for children while parents contribute.

CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS Brought To You By Milton Levine

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED FURNITURE IN DIFFERENT SHAPES?

Take a look at the average living room. Very often much of the furniture in the room has the same shape, and while you don't want a reckless hodgepodge of furniture, it's still generally a good idea to have some furniture in different shapes to increase the interest in a room.

For instance, the pieces in a given room may be either mostly rectangular or mostly curved. In that case, why not consider, for example, something like a curved table in front of a rectangular sofa or a rectangular table in front of a curved sofa -- or a chair in a different shape, or some piece of furniture somewhere in the room that offers a good contrast if your room has too much of the same shapes.

A new mirror or picture that's in a different shape and proportion than the furniture in a room may bring some new excitement, and that goes for any accessory that can give you needed shapes that your rooms don't now have.

The best bet is to come in and browse around with an eye towards how the shape of a piece can really help one of your rooms.

Whether you are looking for the usual or the unusual, you'll always find good furniture values here.

Warriors Drop Third In Row

Fighting For Yardage

Andover's Jim LaCourse (87) struggles to pick up a little more yardage despite the clutches of a Tewksbury player last Saturday afternoon at Lovely field. Tewksbury's Tom Alexander (84) prepares to put a stop to the action during the Warriors loss, their third of the season. Andover visits Wilmington Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

By Rick Harrison

Andover High football Coach Dick Collins realized at the start of the season that development of an offensive line was a top priority if the 1979 Golden Warriors were to succeed.

The maturation of the front line has been slow, the early season schedule tough, and the result is an 0-3 record entering this Saturday afternoon's road game against a rugged Wilmington High crew.

It's been a long time since Andover dropped three consecutive games on the gridiron, but last weekend Tewksbury parlayed a balanced offense and hard-charging defensive line into a 23-8 Merrimack Valley Conference victory at Lovely field.

Although admittedly outplayed, the Golden Warriors were once again in contention until an interception and subsequent touchdown late in the fourth quarter put the game out of reach.

Andover's earlier losses came by a total of eight points, 14-13 against Wakefield and 7-0 against Dracut.

Walsh On The Run

Tewksbury, now 3-0 after previous victories over Boston College High (13-7) and Austin Prep (39-6), kept Golden Warriors' quarterback Tom Walsh on the run all afternoon.

Walsh, who completed 10-of-24 passes (two interceptions), was scrambling for his life much of the time.

The black rhinoceros cow bears only one calf about every three years, and both parents guard it jealously.

The Redmen sack squad nailed him behind the line of scrimmage six different times for 64 yards in losses.

Andover's total offense in the first half was 12 yards, its total rushing offense — 33 yards for the game, and the Golden Warriors managed only 35 yards combined

On The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore

The Tea-Men Clinic had to be cancelled due to the bad weather and will be rescheduled for a later date. The Skills Clinic conducted by the Andover High School Boys' Varsity Soccer Team was held on Friday evening and many youngsters turned out for that event. These Skills Clinics for grades three through nine will continue on Friday evenings, weather permitting, until the Fall Soccer Season ends.

Elsewhere, a lost and found department has been established at the McAnally's, 4 Midland Circle, Andover. They have a variety of objects found after soccer games have been played and if you are missing anything, please contact them.

The results of the games played last weekend follow below:

Division 1 Grades 3/4, Boys

Express 1, Aztecs 0

Both teams made many good attempts to get the ball into the nets in the first three quarters, unsuccessfully. In the final quarter, the Express forward line put on the pressure, kept the ball in the Aztecs goal zone after many attempts booted in the elusive goal (Chris McAnally on a fine pass by Jeff Edwards) to win the points. BOW: Steven Flanders, Scott Livermore, Chris McAnally and Jeff Edwards (Express) as well as Scott Friese, Jeff DiDorato and Jeremy Kaplan (Aztecs).

Beacons 4, Rowdies 1

The game was tied up at the end of the first quarter, both teams having scored a goal (Craig Knight for the Beacons and Peter Radulski on a pass from J. B. Burgess for the Rowdies). The Beacons played very aggressively in the second and third quarters, booted in three more goals (Paul DeMarco, Joshua Malitsky and Matthew Corbett) and they won the points. BOW: Michael Kalil, Joshua Malitsky and Allen Boucher (Beacons) as well as Peter Radulski and Kyle Marcella (Rowdies).

Cosmos 5, Strikers 1 Cosmos 3, Quakes 4

The Cosmos played a strong first quarter, during which they were successful in scoring three goals (Thatcher Worthen (2) and Peter Kannam). The Strikers scored in the third quarter in which they dominated the play (Jose Guerra). The Cosmos made it a 5-1 victory when Peter Kannam scored twice in the final quarter. BOW: Brian Reagan and Scott Adams (Cosmos) as well as John Gemmell, Daniel Ferris and Robbie DiAdamo (Strikers).

In a make-up game with the Quakes, the Cosmos took an early lead when Thatcher Worthen scored on a corner kick from Kevin Newman. The Quakes booted in three goals in the second and third quarters (Jim Sullivan (2), one on a pass from David Seaman and another on a pass from Steve Prochniak, and Jeff Leonard on a pass from Jeremy Leville). The spirited Cosmos then tied it up when Jimmy Reagan scored twice. With 6 seconds left in the game, Jim Sullivan scored again and his team won the points. BOW: Mike Biondo and Peter Kannam (Cosmos) as well as Jonathan Maldon and David Stark (Quakes).

Timbers 3, Sounders 1 Timbers 2, Diplomats 2

The Timbers played a spirited game against the Sounders and scored in the first, second and fourth quarters (Mickey Schalllop on a pass from Brent Raftery, Brent Raftery (2) on a pass from Joey Tavilla). The Sounders played a very strong final quarter, scored one goal (Stephen Napolitano), but were still two down at the final whistle. BOW: Bill O'Brien and John Mattola (Timbers) as well as Michael Smith, Matthew Fardy and Stephen Napolitano (Sounders).

In a make-up game with the Diplomats, both teams were successful in scoring twice and the end result was a tie game. Scoring for the Diplomats were Steven Mencis and John Pike on a pass from Steven Mencis; Brend Raftery scored both goals for this team on passes from Doug Howes and Todd Goyette. BOW: Tom Tormey, Stephen Bertetti and Steven Howes (Timbers) as well as Mark Books, Gabriel Brunn and Craig Flashenberg (Diplomats).

3/4 Grade, Girls

Dolphins 4

North Andover Corals 2

With only ten players on hand, the Corals made the Dolphins work hard for their victory points. They made many good shots on the nets but goalies Kim Anderson and Katy Karp blocked all but two booted in by Tara Callagy. The Dolphins were able to boot in four goals (Katy Karp, Kim Anderson and Kirsten Beigel (2) and they won the points. BOW: Kerry Fitzpatrick and Elizabeth Howe (Dolphins).

Otters 1

No. Andover Diamond Backs 5

The Otters were challenged by a strong North Andover team who controlled much of the play and were able to boot in five goals whilst holding the Otters to one scored in the third quarter by Kimberly Wilkins. BOW: Leanne DeRosa and Laura Cox (Otters).

Marlins 1, Dolphins 0

The Marlin scored in the first quarter when Pam Egan booted in the ball on a pass by Bonny Weinstein. The Dolphins made many attempts to even it up throughout the rest of the play but alert goal tending by Tahisa Paul thwarted their efforts. BOW: Heather Pomeroy and Michelle Soreff (Marlins).

Sharks 1, Surfs 2

The score was tied up at the end of the second quarter, both teams having scored once (Cheryl Hunt for the Surfs and Julie Darwin on a pass from Michelle Meli for the Sharks). The Surfs worked hard for the winning goal and succeeded in the third quarter when Beth Cronin booted in the

West Jr. Booters Win, 7-0

The Andover West Junior High soccer team won its second game Monday, defeating Billerica 7-0. Dan Kimball scored early in the first period on a corner kick for the only goal West would need. Steve Carbone and John Hevehan also scored in the first period. Dean Weaver and Greg Batten added single scores and Alvin Olhenbusch booted in two more in the fourth quarter.

The game was completely dominated by West. Goalie Dean Lockwood had to touch the ball very little in recording the team's first shutout. Defensive backs Rob Retelle, David Collins and Bobby French continually kept Billerica bottled up in their half of the field.

West's record is now two wins and no losses, and will play at Phillips Academy, Wednesday, Oct. 10.

ball on passes from Jane Sullivan and Lindsey Curley. BOW: Vickie Anderson and Stephanie Kuo (Surfs) as well as Mina Sheel and Catherine Allard (Sharks).

Division 2 5/6 Grade, Boys

Cougars 2, Foxes 0

The Cougars controlled much of the play in the first half and were successful in scoring two goals (Greg Tormey on a pass from Mark Neaves and Mark Neaves on a pass from Bruce Crawford). The spirited Foxes worked hard to get the ball into the nets but good defensive play by the Cougars stopped their efforts. BOW: Michael French, John Driscoll and Chris Gully (Cougars) as well as Robbie Schmidt and Dean Knight (Foxes).

Wolves 3, Cougars 1

The Wolves played a spirited game with the Cougars and their forward line were particularly successful in the second quarter when they booted in three quick goals (Kyle McCabe on a pass from Dave Eckman, and again on a pass from Paul Mooradian, and Dave Eckman direct). The Cougars booted in one in the third quarter (Mark Neaves on a pass from Matthew Shine) but were still two down at the final whistle. BOW: Casey Pant and Steven Gerrior (Wolves) as well as Chris Nelson, Sam D'Urso and David Desmarais (Cougars).

Bruins 3, Pumas 1

The Bruins played an aggressive first half, during which they took a two goal lead (Bryan Poisson on a pass from David Young, and Kenny Young direct). The Pumas met the challenge in the third quarter and they scored (Jay DuHadway on a fine pass by Jeff Smith). The Bruins forward line were anxious to increase their lead, which they did when Mike Hardock scored, and they won a 3-1 victory. BOW: Chuck Faust, David Jedrzejek (Bruins) as well as Geoff Bolan, Tom Herling and Scott Wilkins (Pumas).

Leopards 2, Lions 2

Playing their game in the rain, the Leopards and Lions provided much excitement for the bedraggled onlookers by scoring goals which changed the lead in about every quarter. At the final whistle each team had scored twice and they both split the points. Scoring the Leopards' goals were Matt Murphy on a pass from Michael Burke, and Steve Colitz direct; scoring for the Lions were Scott Goldman and Jamie O'Brien on a pass from Michael Corkery. BOW: Jim Astbury, George Cioffi and Dan Grecoe (Leopards) as well as Matt Dorsey, Gerald Nassif and John Todt (Lions).

Bobcats 3 — Lions 1

The Lions scored in the first quarter (Andy Lascher on a corner kick by John Todt) and made many attempts to increase their lead in the second quarter, unsuccessfully. The BobCats played much stronger in the third and fourth quarters, scored on a penalty shot (Matthew Alden) and booted in two more (Nicky Coon and John Nuzzo on a pass from Matthew Alden), to win the points. BOW: David Flanders and Craig Sorrie (Bobcats) as well as Goalie Billy Dutton, Robert Thompson and Michael Corkery (Lions).

Panthers 2 — Bears 1

The Panthers controlled much of the play in the first half but good defensive tactics prevented them from scoring the elusive goal. They kept up the pressure and eventually were able to boot one in in the third and fourth quarters (Chris Graff on a pass from Mark Baldwin and Sandy MacNeish on a pass from Chris Graff). The spirited Bears scored once towards the end of the game (Jeffrey Ashworth) but were unable to tie it up and the Panthers won the points. BOW: Eric Buchholz and John Saalfrank (Bears) as well as Henning Ohlenbusch and Michael Cox (Panthers).

(5/6 Grade Girls)

Zebras 5

North Andover Swordfish 2

The Zebras played an exceptionally strong first quarter and were successful in booting in four goals (Katie Sheehan and Vered Pomerantz (3) North Andover met the challenge in the third quarter and they booted in two goals. The Zebras made it five when Katie Sheehan scored again in the final quarter, and her team won the points. BOW: Marcia Batal and Susan Hunt (Zebras).

Cheetahs 7

North Andover Bluefins 0

The Cheetahs playing a less experienced North Andover team were able to control most of the play and boot in a total of seven goals before the final whistle (Jahna Malitsky (2), Susan Clark, Sheila Hamilton, Elizabeth Pastor (2) and Christine Morey). BOW: Jahna Malitsky and Elizabeth Pastor.

Impalas 2 — Caribou 0

The Caribous made many attempts to score in the first two quarters but their efforts were thwarted by some great defensive play by the Impala. The Impalas played a strong second half and they were able to score two goals (Merrilly Clark and Ellen LeMaitre on a pass from Melissa Horton) to win the points. BOW: Nicole DeMartino and Courtney Raftery (Impalas) as well as goalie Kathleen Griffin, Ellen Searway and Janine Sotera (Caribou).

Division 3 (7/9 Grade Boys)

Apollos 1 — Rams 0

Both teams made many good attempts to score throughout the game but good defensive play by the fullbacks and alert goal tending, denied the effort. The Apollos won the victory points when they scored in the third quarter (Gary Bachinsky on a pass from Matt Ostrowski). BOW: Mark Asgierrson, John Drake and Ed McParland (Apollos) as well as Nicky Bates, Paul Finnegan and Stewart Hannah (Rams).

rushing and passing.

Tewksbury, on the other hand, chalked up 152 yards on the ground and 175 through the air for 327 yards total offense.

Redmen quarterback Dennis Vecchi, a junior, picked apart the AHS secondary as he completed 10-of-15 passes (one interception) including one for a touchdown.

Santos Fieldgoal

Neither offense could get untracked in the early going, as most of the first quarter was spend exchanging punts.

The lone first down during the opening eight minutes occurred when Walsh fired a 12 yard pass to end Jim Lacourse.

Tewksbury put Nardone's third punt in motion at its own 31 late in the opening period, and the Redmen quickly drove to the Andover four yard line with the key play a 51 yard bomb from Vecchi to Mike Prescott.

At this point the march stalled, however, with a fumbled pitchout moving the ball back to the 11.

Enter sophomore Charlie Santos, who toed a 28 yard fieldgoal that cleared the crossbar by less than one foot. The kick gave Tewksbury a 3-0 lead at 2:16 of the second quarter.

Several minutes later Nardone, who averaged 40.1 yards for six punts, was forced to boot the ball away again.

Sophomore Frank Fay took the kick at his own 26, bounced off three would-be tacklers, and raced 49 yards to the Golden Warriors' 25 before being hauled down by Nardone himself.

Two penalties pushed the ball back to the 45, but Vecchi unloaded a 31 yard pass to Fay for a first down at the 14.

John Wolfe took a pitchout left for nine yards, and Vecchi then cracked up the middle for the touchdown.

Santos' PAT made it 10-0 with 3:41 to play in the half.

The Redmen got their hands on the ball once more prior to intermission, and they made it count with a quick 61-yard, seven-play aerial march.

Vecchi completed a five yard pass to mighty-mite Tom Horgan (5'3"), hit Brian Foley with nine and 23 yard aeriels, and found Wolfe for a 22 yard gain to the Andover one.

Vecchi then drilled a short touchdown pass to Horgan with 39 seconds remaining in the half.

Santos' attempted conversion boot was wide to the right, but the Redmen left at halftime with a 16-0 lead.

Andover Threatens

The Golden Warriors were unable to advance beyond their own 40 yard line in the first two periods, but mounted their first threat early in the third quarter after senior defensive tackle Dan Dellatto pounced on a Tewksbury fumble at the Redman 41.

Nardone ripped off a 14 yard run, Walsh hit Nardone with an eight yard pass, and Nardone bulled four more yards to the 15.

Speedster Mel Berger raced to the seven, but a costly holding penalty pushed the ball all the way back to the 34. One slip and two sacks later it was fourth-and-51 at the AHS 44.

Nardone was forced to punt again, and the Redmen took the ball at their jown 23 and marched to the Andover 12 before a holding penalty stalled the drive.

Junior defensive back Wayne Merola brought the home crowd to its feet on the next play, picking off a Vecchi pass at the Golden Warriors' 32 and zig-zagging 47 yards to the Tewksbury 21 on a brilliant runback.

A rush by Berger went nowhere, and Walsh was sacked for a 15 yard loss on second down, but successive pass completions to Jim Stamas (11 yards) and Berger (19 yards) on third and fourth down brought the ball to the Redmen six.

Walsh then fired a six-yard touchdown pass to junior Bob Heidt, who made a superb diving catch in the right front corner of the endzone.

Walsh flipped the conversion pass to Berger, cutting the gap to 16-8 with 7:30 still to play.

The touchdown snapped a seven-period scoreless drought for the Golden Warriors.

Key Interception

Tewksbury took the ensuing kickoff and, sparked by 12 and 15 yard runs from Bob Byrd, advanced the ball to midfield.

The Andover defense dug in at this point, forcing a punt which Dave Hanley boomed to the Warriors' two.

Mel Berger moved the ball out to the nine, then took a pitch right and hurdled defender Mark Riddle enroute to a flashy 11 yard gain.

Walsh passed to Heidt for five yards and Nardone for eight more.

With four minutes to play consecutive passes to Berger fell incomplete, the first a razzle-dazzle option toss by Lacourse.

A third down pass intended for Berger was intercepted at the 38 by Tewksbury defensive guard Dan Billings, who returned the ball to the 27.

A kneeling penalty, one of nine major infractions against the Redman, brought the ball back to the Andover 42.

On the first play Horgan, the game's top rusher with 78 yards in 12 carries, swept the right side and sprinted 36 yards to the six.

Horgan followed the same blocking pattern on the next formation, bolting to paydirt for the insurance touchdown with 2:57 to play.

Santos toed the conversion for a safe 23-8 lead.

Andover had one last bid, but a Walsh bomb for Berger was intercepted by free safety Vecchi at the Tewksbury 26.

Men's Basketball

An organizational meeting of all 1979 Men's Basketball League team representatives will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 10. The meeting will be held at the Stowe School Conference Room and all representatives wishing to field a team for the upcoming season must attend.

Men's Basketball Tryouts

Individuals interested in playing on a team in the Department's Men's Basketball League should attend tryouts on Wednesday, Oct. 17, at the West Jr. High School. Tryouts will take place from 7 to 8 p.m. The league is made up of two divisions: 1. Ages 19-33; 2. Ages 33 and over. For more information regarding the league, individuals should call George Kwicien at the DCS office.

Foot Race

This year's five-mile foot race will be held Sunday, Oct. 21. Registration forms are now available at the Hockey Shop in Shawsheen Square, the Sport Shop on Main Street, the Andover High School and the Department of Community Services office at 36 Bartlet St. For additional race information, individuals should telephone the office.

Andy 500

Registration forms for the Department's annual "Andy 500" soap box derby are currently available at all Andover elementary and junior high schools, the Sport Shop, the Hockey Shop and the Department of Community Services office. This year's racing will take place at the "School Street Speedway" on Saturday, Oct. 13.

Foot Race Needs Volunteers

The Department's annual five-mile foot race requires many volunteers to help with timing, recording and crowd control. Individuals who would like to help with this special event should contact the office as soon as possible. The race will be held on Sunday, Oct. 21 and will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Backgammon Workshop

The Department is still accepting registrations for the Backgammon Strategy Workshop to be held on Thursday, Oct. 18, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the East Jr. High School. The workshop is designed for the beginner player looking to take up the game of backgammon as well as the intermediate player looking to improve his/her game. Participants should bring their backgammon sets to class.

Nature Walks

This week's guided nature walk through some of Andover's conservation lands will take place at the Doyle Link Trails. Maps of meeting site and the Doyle Link area are available at the DCS office and Moor and Mountain on Park Street. Participants should wear comfortable clothing. All nature walks are free and open to the public.

The Deep

This week's movie feature, "The Deep," starring Robert Shaw and Jacqueline Bisset will start at 7 p.m. on Thursday and 8 p.m. on Friday at the High School Large Group Room.

Haunted House Meeting

All interested persons are welcome to join in the fun of planning the haunted house for Wednesday, Oct. 31. A general meeting will be held at the Doherty School beginning at 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 9. Bring your talents and imagination.

Sturbridge Village

Reservations are still being accepted for the Sturbridge Village Trip to be held on Sunday, Oct. 14. The bus will leave Andover at 9:30 a.m. and return approximately at 5 p.m. Additional information and fees to be paid in advance will be handled at the DCS office, 36 Bartlet St., Monday through Friday between 8:30 and 4:30 p.m.

MS Conference

The eighth annual Conference on Multiple Sclerosis is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 21 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Freeport Hall in Dorchester. The program is designed to help patients and family members cope with MS by providing up-to-date information about the disease. This year, the keynote speaker is Miriam Ottenberg, MS'er and Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter. Ms. Ottenberg authored "The Pursuit of Hope," a book offering helpful information and inspiration to the many MS'ers in America. The program will also include six workshops on psychological issues; stress reduction and relaxation for the MS'er; urological problems; speech therapy, and financial and other resources. A dinner will complete the program.

Homecoming

The University of Lowell Alumni Association is sponsoring a Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 12 and 13, with a variety of events planned, including the concert preview of the new U. Lowell Marching Band.

The Marching Band, a first in U. Lowell history, makes its debut in a free concert, Friday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m. in Durgin Hall. Organized by J. Alan Whiston of the College of Music faculty, the 120 member group is one of the largest bands in the area.

Their music, in drum corps style, ranges from jazz to popular music, and features original compositions by top band leader John Higgins.

Other Stats

Tewksbury also led in first downs, 12-7, and scrimmage plays, 56-50.

In addition to his 78 yards, Horgan caught three passes and had another 20 yard run wiped out by a penalty.

Bob Byrd finished with 44 yards rushing and had a 15 yard run called back.

Tewksbury was penalized 159 yards to Andover's 29.

Nardone gained 27 yards rushing in four carries.

AHS Defense

Once again the Golden Warriors' defensive front played a pretty solid game, led by Dellatto, Ken Hyslip and Joe Lahood (before he injured his ankle).

Wilmington

Andover will have its hands full with Wilmington this weekend, as the veteran Wildcats appear to be the class of the league.

They are currently tied atop the standings with Chelmsford, Dracut and Tewksbury at 2-0-0.

Wilmington has yet to be scored with successive shutout wins against Central Catholic (21-0) and Austin Prep (44-0).

Leading the attack are veteran QB John Robarge, tight end and Dave Woods and running back Chris Briggs.

Defensive back Mark Boudreau probably established a National record last Saturday, as he returned three blocked punts for touchdowns against Austin Prep.

Warriors 1 — Titans 2

The Titans scored in the second and third quarters (Ralph Luciano, one on a pass from Daniel Enright). The spirited Warriors worked hard to get the ball into the nets to even it up and did succeed in booting one in in the final quarter (Tim Jennings on a great pass from Stephen Holt) but they were still one down at the final whistle. BOW: Robert Yelle and Peter Scanlon (Titans) as well as Stephen Holt and Russell Lowe (Warriors).

Grizzlies 3 — Spartans 1

The Spartans controlled the play in the first two quarters and were able to score once (Andy Glaser). The Grizzlies accepted the challenge in the third and fourth quarters, played very aggressively and booted in a total of three goals to win the victory points (rich Mangano on a pass from Paul Hevehan, Paul Hevehan on a pass from Sean Trombly, and Doug Williams direct). BOW: Sean Trombly, Robert Scanlon and Scott West (Grizzlies), as well as Eric Penney and Charlie Lowe (Spartans).

(7/9 Grade Girls)

Chargers 4

North Andover Palominos 1

The Chargers scored twice in the first quarter (Anne Marie Murphy and Lisa Aiello on a pass from Erin Sheehan). North Andover booted one in in the second quarter and the Chargers did likewise (Kathy Kimball on a pass from Stephanie Weinstein). The Chargers increased their lead in the third quarter (Lisa Aiello) and with no more goals by the Palominos, they won the points. BOW: Lisa Aiello and Kathy Kimball (Chargers).

Gators 2

North Andover Morgans 1

North Andover held a one goal lead until the final quarter when the Gators really played most aggressively, dominated the play and booted in two quick goals (Kathy Neaves, one on a pass from Suzanne Curley and the other on a pass from Susan Smith) to win the points. BOW: Jana Caldwell and Michelle DeVoir (Gators).

Fury 2 — Gazelles 1

The Gazelles took the lead in the first quarter when Kristen Shepard booted in the ball on a pass from Nicole Durant. The Fury evened it up in the second quarter (Kim Hardock on a pass from Sara Michelle Sapuppo) and with another goal in the final quarter (SaraMichelle Sapuppo direct), they won the points. BOW: Beth Sullivan, Tammy Doyle and Betsy White (Gazelles) as well as Mary Oppel and Joanne Martin (Fury).

Coyotes 3

North Andover Palominos 2

The Coyotes scored in the first half (Julie Foley); the Palominos quickly Julie Kinsky. BOW: Ann Plamondon and evened it up. Again the Coyotes scored in Marianne Nuzzo (Coyotes).

Lawler Memorial Award"); Rich Grimm ("Coaches Award"); Jon Pelletier ("Most Valuable Player" both team and league); Glenn McIntyre ("Most Valuable Player Canadian Trip"); and Jake Powell ("Coaches Award").

Babe Ruth Players Honored

Eight different players earned trophies as the Andover Babe Ruth 13-15 baseball team held its annual awards banquet recently at a North Andover restaurant.

Taking home trophies were 15-year-olds Jon Pelletier, Jake Powell, Rich Grimm, Tim Grams and Glenn McIntyre, 14-year-old Andy Emmert, and 13-year-olds Robbie Wilson and Steve Dougal.

Pelletier, a three-year veteran of the team, won the "Most Valuable Player" award. Jon, who was also the third Andover player in the last decade to be named the Greater-Lawrence League MVP as well, established a number of team records this past summer.

Among his other accomplishments, Pelletier hit .550 during the regular season, .488 including non-league and playoff games, and struck out 99 batters in 76 innings enroute to a 7-4 pitching record.

Powell and Grimm won the "Coach's Award" which is given for outstanding attitude and ability.

The Coach's Award is symbolic not only of excellence on the playing field, but overall conduct, sportsmanship and maturity off the field.

Powell hit .311 this season and .307 during his three-year career for Andover, while Grimm joined Pelletier and McIntyre to form a highly-successful pitching staff.

Grams was presented the second annual "Thom Lawler Memorial Award," joining 1978 recipient Wayne Merola.

Lawler, the highly-successful Merrimack College hockey coach and athletic director who passed away last year, was president of the Andover Babe Ruth Baseball Association for several years.

Thom always admired desire, aggressiveness and hustle in an athlete. It is those qualities, along with talent, that determine the Lawler Award winner.

Grams hit over .300 during the regular season, and in three years of Babe Ruth play as an outfielder and first baseman, Tim did not make an error in 107 chances.

McIntyre won the "MVP of the Canadian Trip Award" for his performance during the team's two games in Montreal last July.

Andover swept their Canadian counterparts, 9-1 and 9-8, with McIntyre instrumental in both victories. He went 3-for-8 in the two games (.375 average), belting a three-run triple and two singles, and Glenn also picked up the pitching victory in relief in the 9-8 contest.

For the season McIntyre was 7-1 on the mound and .338 at the plate.

Wilson and Dougal were named "Rookies-of-the-Year."

Both hung in tough at the plate against pitchers one and two years older, and both were excellent defensively with Wilson patrolling the outfield and Dougal playing second base.

Emmert captured the "Most Improved Player" trophy for his fine play down the stretch.

He led the team in batting during the playoffs with a .421 average, hit .295 for the season, and did a solid job at catcher.

Other Awards

received "No-Hit Certificates" from National Babe Ruth headquarters.

Grimm fired his no-hitter against South Lawrence East, while Pelletier fashioned a no-hit masterpiece against Prospect Hill during the playoffs.

Plaques were given to Powell for his .307 career batting average, to Grams for his 1.000 career fielding average, and to Pelletier for the numerous team records he either tied or bettered.

Game balls were presented to Grimm, Grams and Emmert.

Grimm received his for a game-winning grand slam homerun he blasted in a 5-1 season-opening victory over North Andover. Grams was cited for his two fence-clearing homeruns that helped in a 4-3 playoff victory over North Andover, and Emmert's came for a key game-winning suicide squeeze bunt in the final inning of the same 4-3 game.

A special plaque of appreciation was also given to team scorekeeper Jack Gibson.

At the annual league banquet earlier, Pelletier captured the MVP trophy while he, Powell and Grams were cited for play during the All-Star Tournament.

Powell hit .444 in the six All-Star Games, while Pelletier fired a one-hitter on the mound to beat Wakefield, 3-1.

Andover completed the 1978 season with a 20-9 overall record, the seventh straight season in which Andover teams have won 20 or more games.

Fall Tryouts

The annual Fall Tryouts at East Junior High in early September also attracted an excellent turnout of 42 candidates.

A total of 23 players in the 13-year-old age division attended the workouts, along with 12 in the 14-year-old division and seven in the 15-year-old group.

The 15s in attendance were Jeff Parker, Rob Slayton, Chris O'Reilly, Scott Harris, Kris Martin, Matt Wells and Andy Emmert.

The 14-year-old candidates were Mark Lefebvre, Scott Noonan, Scott Zimmerman, Jeff Crowninshield, Bill Foley, Brett Larrabee, Brian Sheehy, Tim Jennings, Dave Schwedler, Jon Crawford, Robbie Wilson and Steve Dougal.

USED MAGIC CARPETS

The magic is in the surprising savings over current market values . . . values that keep rising month by month, year by year. There's magic too, in the way time tends to mellow the beauty of handwoven Oriental rugs like these.

It's a spectacular collection we offer in this October Anniversary event. Bought from homes and estates before the market soared, we've carefully hoarded it until now.

And now — whatever your taste or budget — there's at least one rug here with your name on it! If you don't see it on this partial list, you'll see it in our showroom.

P.S. We offer the same 20% saving in October, on every new, antique or semi-antique rug in our million dollar collection.

Girls Top Peabody

The girls' varsity soccer team defeated Peabody 2-1 on Tuesday. The Golden Warriors were led to victory by their aggressiveness and excellent team play.

Linda Griggs, left wing, made the Warrior's first goal in the first quarter. Peabody tied it up in the second quarter.

Karen Hardock, left inner, put the ball in goal for their second score, on a perfect centered pass from Linda Griggs.

Outstanding defensive player was goalie Sue Jasmin, who made many excellent saves.

Solar Hot Water Funds Available

Massachusetts' consumers still have time to apply for $400 solar hot water grants available through the Office of Energy Resources (OER).

The deadline for applying for the grants, distributed on a first-come-first-serve basis, has been extended to Dec. 1. The program, originally slated to end Sept. 30, provides cash rebates of $400 to homeowners who install solar hot water systems approved by the federal Housing and Urban Development (HUD) agency which funds the program.

Some 1,375 grants were originally available through the OER's Solar Office. Presently, however, about 700 remain to be distributed.

The average cost of a domestic hot water system runs about $2,700. However, with the aid of the grant, a federal solar tax credit, and a possible state solar tax credit, the actual cost can be cut down to just over $1,000.

For example, after the $400 is subtracted from the $2,700 cost, the existing federal solar tax credit can be applied to $2,300. (The federal credit is 30 percent of the first $2,000, and then 20 percent of anything above, up to $10,000). The total credit of $660 would leave a $1,640 cost. Presently, there is a state income tax credit, passed by the house, but pending before the Senate. That credit, if approved, would be 35 percent up to $1,000 and would then reduce the cost by $574 to $1,066.

"It is important that Massachusetts' homeowners take advantage of these HUD grants," said Joseph S. Fitzpatrick, the Director of the OER. "Solar hot water heating is a viable way to cut down on a home's energy use, and the grant money reduces the up-front costs considerably," he added.

The grant money must be returned to the federal treasury if not used.

For a consumer to be eligible for the grant, the solar system must be installed on a single family residence and must be used for hot water heating only.

For more information on the HUD grant program, consumers should call the toll-free Energy Phone at 1-800-922-8265 or write the Solar Office, Room 849, 73 Tremont St., Boston.

John G. Higgins

Chairman Of Stock Exchange

At the annual meeting of the Boston Stock Exchange, chairman John F. Guthrie announced that trading volume for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, was expected to set an all time record of 63.5 million shares compared with 57.5 million shares for 1978.

He also announced the results of the annual election which elected John G. Higgins, of Andover, vice president of Kidder, Peabody & Co., to the chairmanship, succeeding Guthrie.

Others elected were Robert G. Dietrich of Dietrich & Company as vice chairman and the following new members to the board of governors; Vincent M. Cantella of Cantella & Co., Inc.; Fred Horenstein of Security Investment Services Corp.; Stephen B. Kay of Goldman, Sachs & Co.; Kenneth M. King of K. and S., Inc.; Joseph P. Lombard of Salomon Brothers; Bruce K. Newell of H.T.N. Securities Co.; Herbert A. Sarkisian of Moors & Cabot, Inc.; David L. Ullom of Barclay Douglas & Co., Inc.; in addition to Francis M. Chase, chairman and chief executive officer of Columbia Chase Corporation of Braintree as a listed company member and Peter F. Madden, executive vice president of State Street Bank and Trust Company of Boston, as a public representative on the Board.

Guthrie announced that the record volume represented an increase of ten percent over the past fiscal year and that the year had been a financial success as

Coinless Pay Phone Installed

A new public telephone which can be used without coins has been introduced in Andover by New England Telephone.

A new coinless "Charge-A-Call" phone service was recently installed alongside coin operated public telephones in the Sheraton Rolling Green Motor Inn on Lowell Street in Andover.

According to local telephone manager Margaret Carrington, the coinless pay well. The Exchange's operating entities include BOSECO, a broker-dealer subsidiary, the BSE Clearing Corporation, the BSE Services Corporation and the New England Securities Depository Trust Company.

Higgins, a resident of Andover, and an Exchange board of governors member during 1971 through 1979, has been associated with Kidder, Peabody & Co., Incorporated since 1964 and with Merrill Lynch for the period 1956 to 1964. He is a 1953 graduate of Holy Cross and served in the United States Marine Corps from 1953 to 1956.

phones offer callers the convenience of dialing without coins. She said this kind of phone is being installed in areas where there is a high level of charge-type long distance calls.

To use these "pay later" telephones, Carrington said customers simply dial "O" plus the number they want to reach and then make it collect or charge it to a credit card or third number when the operator comes on the line.

Over 100 "Charge-A-Call" sets have been installed by the company since they were introduced last year in Boston.

The company expects to have about 1,000 units in service in its five-state operating area of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island by the end of this year.

Junior Gardeners To Meet

The Andover Junior Garden Club will hold its first meeting of the year at the downstairs meeting room of the Bay State Bank on Main Street, on Saturday, Oct. 6 at 10 a.m. The junior gardeners will register and discuss the year's activities, learn how to plant day lilies, and receive house plants to care for.

Future activities planned for the club include the planting of the day lilies in the Bicentennial Garden, making a Holiday Kissing Ball, a field trip to the Phillips Academy Science Building, construction of a bird feeder, making a pressed flower disc, learning how to arrange fresh flowers, and a conservation field trip and picnic.

Membership in the Junior Garden Club is open to all children of the town, grades 3 to 8. Meetings are held on the first Saturday of every month, with activities planned to enhance children's knowledge and enjoyment of our environment. Any child with an interest in plants is encouraged to join us on Saturday morning.

Players Present "Dolly"

The Garrett Off-Broadway Theatre has begun its 1979-80 season with the production of "Hello Dolly," Broadway's all-time, longest-running musical.

The show is based on Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker," a comedy about New York horsecar days, and set to Jerry Herman's songs. Sylvia Greenberg of Haverhill is cast in the title role of Mrs. Dolly Levi, widow, busybody, matchmaker and eventually wife of a wealthy local businessman.

In supporting roles are Gary-Thomas

Keating of Lawrence, David Conway of Everett, Tim Grover of Haverhill, Cindi Kostylo of Tewksbury, Pamela Denning of North Reading, Paul Schroeder of Methuen and Debbie Salois of North Andover.

Performances will be given Oct. 5, 6, 12, 13, 14 and 19 at 232 Lowell St., Lawrence. *Curtain is at 8:30 p.m. and reservations can be made by phoning the theatre.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra will present an expanded schedule of 18 Chamber Music Preludes at Symphony Hall during the 1979-80 season.

The Preludes feature members of the Boston Symphony in pre-concert chamber music performances of works designed to complement that evening's full symphonic concert. They will run from 6 to 7 p.m. and will be followed by pre-concert dinners from 7 to 8 p.m. The prelude series is available exclusively to Boston Symphony subscribers.

The series was instituted in the middle of last season as a vehicle in which to demonstrate the chamber music skills of BSO members and to provide new opportunities for Symphony audiences. This season's Preludes are made possible with the financial assistance of the State Street Bank.

The schedule includes music of Beethoven and Ravel on Oct. 6 and 9; Prokofiev and Janacek, Oct. 11 and 16; Mendelssohn, Haydn and Schumann, Nov. 8 and 10; Beethoven and Stravinsky, Dec. 6 and 8; Haydn and Tchaikovsky, Jan. 3 and 5; Mozart, Feb. 9 and 12; Haydn, Liszt and Stravinsky, Feb. 28 and March 1; Schubert and Brahms, March 6 and 11; and closes with a program of Mahler songs on April 24 and 26.

Further information on the series can be obtained by calling the Boston Symphony's Subscription Office.

Andover residents who have not completed a Drug and Alcohol Awareness Survey still have the opportunity to do so. The survey appears in the Fall catalogue of the Department of Community Services. Additional copies are available at the Andover Public Library and the DCS

FISH Has Merged

A merger reception was held at the First United Methodist Church in North Andover to join FISH of Andover and FISH of Greater Lawrence. The community of Greater Lawrence has been privileged to have had two groups of dedicated volunteers for a number of years who have been interested in helping others in emergency situations. By merging, FISH anticipates greater commitment and more efficient services to the towns of Andover, Lawrence, Methuen and North Andover.

Volunteers are always the most important ingredient of the concept of "love they neighbor." FISH of Greater Lawrence hopes that all former volunteers will continue their participation and looks forward to welcoming new volunteers. Those wishing to help in any capacity, contact the office of FISH of Greater Lawrence at P.O. Box 454, Lawrence, Mass. 01840.

office. The purpose of the survey is to determine community opinion concerning the use of drugs and alcohol by town residents. Completed surveys should be returned, either in person or by mail, to the Andover Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Awareness, c/o The Department of Community Services, 36 Bartlet St.

The survey was developed by the Andover Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Awareness. Initiated by the League of Women Voters in response to community concerns, the Task Force is composed of residents, educators, students, and social service professionals. Response to the questionnaire will give the Task Force direction on possible future action. After compilation and analysis, results of the survey will be published.

Solar Energy

Solar energy may provide Israel with eight to 15 percent of its needs by the 1990s. Saltwater solar ponds collect and store heat on the bottom where temperatures approach the boiling point, Massachusetts Audubon says. One pond fuels a 30-kilowatt electric plant; another provides power for a resort hotel.

Pinewood Garden — Greenhouse, Craft Shop, Nursery

House plants, potting supplies, garden tools and supplies, shrubs, craft materials — you'll find it all at Pinewood Garden, Route 28 in North Reading. It's the biggest selection of plants and gardening supplies. Service is fast and friendly.

Step into Pinewood Garden's greenhouses and browse among rows and rows of beautiful plants of every description: hanging plants, flowering plants, dish gardens, upright plants — over one thousand different varieties and sizes of plants for home and office. Replace your plants that been neglected during the summer.

For your plants that need repotting at this time of year.

Pinewood Garden has all the supplies you need: potting soil, vermiculite, tools, etc. They also have a beautiful selection of pottery in all sizes, baskets, rope hangers, brackets, plant stands, grow lights, fertilizers, plant food, insecticides, etc.

If you are already one of Pinewood Garden's customers you know the pleasure of shopping there. If not, stop by soon and get acquainted. Join the group of steady customers who have been coming back year after year. If you need advice, just ask for it. You will always find the friendly staff at Pinewood Garden ready to help you and answer your questions.

In addition to the greenhouse filled with plants, and the Craft Shop featuring straw mats and decorative items for craft projects, Pinewood Garden has a three-acre spread of nursery stock. They now grow much of their own stock, in order to offer the public better, healthier stock, at better prices. They still have many shrubs and trees suitable for fall planting. Also bulbs, fertilizer and lawn food, and a full line of bird feeders and bird food.

Stop in and meet the folks at Pinewood Garden soon. It is located on Route 28, right on the Andover-North Reading line. Open seven days a week from 9 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. Watch for the big pile of pumpkins and the huge display of mums! Tel. 664-4472.

A GREAT TAX SHELTER

Investing in real estate is one of the great tax shelters available to persons, especially in high tax brackets. What is a tax shelter?
Basically, it's an investment that allows you to keep some money that you've earned, rather than give it to Uncle
Sam in the form of income taxes.

Real Estate investors of income property are allowed a depreciation allowance which has the same affect on your income tax as exemptions for your dependents. It comes right off the top.
For example, a brick office building is "expected" to last 40 years.
If you bought it for $100,000, you could deduct $2,500 per year.
By using "accelerated depreciation", you can deduct more during the early years and less in the later years.

Also, there are many other tax deductions, such as interest on the mortgage, and taxes which can be very sizable. Above all, remember that these come off the gross income, and your tax rate is based on what's left after deductions. The lower the net, the lower the rate.

If there is anything
we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in
at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100.
We're here to help.

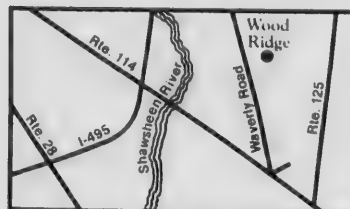

North Andover's Newest Townhouse Community

Take advantage of the benefits of cooperative ownership and enjoy the privacy of your own townhouse. For a small investment, you can become an owner in this carefully planned, beautifully landscaped community. If you are eligible, your monthly payments may be adjusted to your income through the use of Section 8 subsidies.

One to four bedrooms, modern kitchens, carpeting, air-conditioning, parking.
Community facilities include swimming and wading pools, tennis courts, clubhouse, playing field and tot lots.

For an appointment, call 682-7093 or visit the sales office at Wood Ridge.
The office will open October 2; hours are Monday through Friday, 10-4.

GOULD, Modicon Division is a recognized leader in programmable controllers and a dynamic rapidly expanding organization with more than its share of technical challenges.

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY MARKETING

Our marketing group is one of the most rapidly expanding, dynamic departments within our company. We need an executive secretary to meet the demands that accompany this growth. You will report directly to the Vice President of Marketing and duties will be both administrative and secretarial. Additional responsibilities include support for other department members, therefore the ability to prioritize assignments and assume a variety of tasks is important. You should have typing skills of 75 wpm or better and shorthand of 100-120 wpm.

If you are detail oriented, can follow through on assignments to completion and are able to work with a minimum amount of supervision, please call our Personnel Office at 475-4700, or send a resume with salary history.

We offer excellent salary, generous fringe benefits and an informal atmosphere for advancement and growth.

Do you know what your home is really worth?

It's important for you to know. Underpricing your home could cost you thousands. And overpricing it could be just as bad, because you might not sell it when you want to.

Then there's the little matter of knowing what your house is worth for insurance purposes.

Establishing optimum price for a house is a science, not an art. It is work for trained experts who know how to analyze your local home-town market.

We use the exclusive Realty World LISTING ACTION PLAN. Let us take you through it — and then you'll know how we can help you arrive at a price that will get you top dollar as well as completing the sale within your timetable.

This unusual service is provided without cost or obligation, whether you are planning to sell or not. It's simply our way of making friends, and we hope — future clients. Please phone 475-6886 for prompt service.

P.S. If your property is already listed with another real estate firm, please disregard this offer. In our industry, we operate cooperatively with most brokers.

THE PROFESSIONAL APPROACH TO SELLING YOUR HOME

- Our Realty World Listing Action Plan helps you establish the real value of your home.
- We invest our money in proven methods of advertising your home that gets the action you need.
- We get the information about your house into the hands of more prospective buyers quickly and efficiently with full-color photo tours of your property at our office.
- We free you from the need of staying at home to show your house to prospective buyers.
- We screen out the lookers from the genuine buyers and bring only the most qualified prospects to inspect your home.
- We steer you through the maze of conditional offers.
- Once your property is under agreement, we help your prospective buyer arrange financing and see that the closing goes smoothly.

for the project. There are no prospective tenants at this point, Bloom said, simply preliminary planning.

The additional motel space which would be provided by the construction of the Koala Inns received board of appeals approval several months ago.

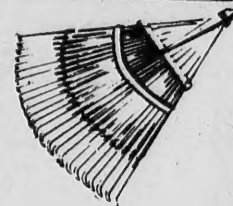

Since that time, officials of the company, which operates inns in other sections of the state, have been seeking necessary easements from the state, since its total development abuts Route 93. These easements have been granted only recently.

Also the firm is working on a common tie-in to the trunk sewer line to the Arkwright-Boston property, the industrial land adjacent to the proposed development.

With these matters resolved, Koala will go forward with its planning and now anticipates that construction will get underway in the Spring.

Koala was assisted by the town's Industrial Development Commission after its first presentation of plans to the town. Not strictly in keeping with the architectural tone of the town, Koala officials were asked to redesign its facility and provide some landscaping. Their initial petition to the Board of Appeals was withdrawn and the redesigned project presented later.
